G.R.C. NEWS

Ballet Dancing classes begin again next Monday at the Town Hall after a two-week's recess. The times are: under six at 4:30; Juniors under 12, 5:00 p.m. and seniors at 6:00 p.m. Georgetown is very fortunate in having a teacher like Mrs. R. Canham and G.R.C. would like to see others taking advantage of these classes.

Last Wednesday our figure skating classes dropped to 22 in attendance, out of 108 enrolled. It was by far the most interesting day however, as Miss Aynsie brought four young people from the Weston Club, ages between 10 and 19 and we saw a wonderful demonstration of what a year's lessons have done for some Weston kiddies.

In hockey GRC is proud of its record of thirty-two teams—4 novice, 4 pee-wee, 4 bantams, 4 midget, 4 juvenile, 5 industrial, 2 high school girls and 4 public school girls teams. In all 450 are registered on our hockey teams and this is apart from Georgetown Raiders, OHA Intermediate and Junior teams.

In industrial hockey the interest is growing week by week. Last Monday some 200 braved the foggy weather to see three very good games. At present Bill Barry of Businessmen, and Jack King, S&S are the leading scorers while Carman Malby of Norval is the leading goalie.

The records of the big five are:

G-A-Pis	6	3	9
Bill Barry (Bus.)	8	1	5
Jack King (S&S)	8	1	5
John McClure (Norval)	5	2	7
Ev Wilson (S&S)	5	2	7
P. Anderson (Mead.)	4	2	6

Goalkeepers
Carman Malby, Norval, played 6 goals against 9, percentage 1.5; Steamer Emerson, Businessmen, played 6 goals against 18; percentage 3.00; Gord King, S&S, played 6 goals against 19, percentage 3.17.

Gordon Alcott brought a Weston Juvenile team to town January 2nd, and was amazed at our GRC hockey program. Incidentally Weston lost 9-0.

GRC has twelve referees and coach awards to make for 1949. Any boy feeling he has earned one must submit in writing to the recreation director his qualifications this week.

The OLA has sent group champion crests for Pee Wee and Bantam players of Georgetown. All boys on the OLA Pee Wee and Bantam teams also please give your names to Rev. L. Self if you feel you have earned one.
