

Telephone 161 Queen and Guelph Streets

E.P. Head OPTOMETRIST

MANUFACTURING OFTECIAN BATTERIES POR HEARING-AIDS ETES EXAMINED BORENTHECALLY SE ST. GEORGE'S SQUARE GUELPH Betablished 20 years

Yeak, Tired, Nervous, Peniess Men, Women

Legion Notes

MONTHLY MEETING HELD LAST THURSDAY NIGHT

lar monthly meeting was held in pressure, don't they, boys?

that they have done a fine job. But are asked to put your name on the it is a very healthy state of affairs blackboard, if able to attend.

they should. How about trying to could pick out the various repre- belonging to the dart teams. turn out for them, fellows? After sentatives of the Tory and Labor A cup has been already offered tended the huge South African. all, it's only one evening in the parties quite easily around the Le- for competition in the next tourns- vets' dinner and reunion, last Satgion Hall. A disgruntled Laborite, ment. As yet the donor remains urday, one of the local old-timers Géneral business was discussed, looking at a fellow-Imperial, was anonymous. It was also decided reminded us that one of Georgeand it was moved that various ac- heard to mutter "You'd think them to present the winning team this town's most distinguished soldiers, counts be paid, subset to audit. A Tories won, to look at HIS facel!! time with summer sport shirts. the late Lt.-Col James Ballantine, report was heard from various of Never mind, boys, they'll probably All interested in entering this had, some fifty-odd years ago, the Committee conveners. Presi- have another election shortly, to tournament are asked to place their written a series of very interesting ing that they were running for of- bers of the Sergeants' Mess, Bramp- meeting to do all this next Saturtice. However, no doubt by the ton, on Saturday, March 4th. And day afternoon. time it rolls sround, every post not to be outdone, members of this will be contested . . . and that's as progressive group of NCO's, have it should be. By that we certainly extended an invitation to members don't mean that we have any quar- of Branch 120, to visit them at the rel with the present executive, in Armouries, on Friday, March 17th. have continually stated in this col- member of Branch 120, and you retary of the Canadian Legion, took place. The following were ing one, and will give the boys a Day, are manufactured by "Vet-This trip should be an outstandchance to see old friends and talk over old times. One of the Mess' Montreel, Tornto, Regina, Calgary, member here, is Cliff Moreton. B.C. The work is done by crippled thanks and appreciation for the The trip would be worthwhile if vets, and apart from providing em- gift he had received, as a "goingfor no other reason than to see the ployment for these 'unemployables' away" present. way the NCO's have transformed the menty contributed by the their quarters. Some months ago, public is spent by local Legion to the St. John Ambulance. gether and, with the aid of a bor- phane who for various reasons, do hither at the end_of August or the Recreation room on the Hall known by Branch 120 members. Saturday afternoon last, to discuss to have individuals seeking office. Although there were not as many this office reminds us that last in spite of the bitter weather.

ent Dave Bowman was in the chair. argue about, at this rather distant names on the board. When all who letters to the Herald, on his existered, teams will be picked and It is unfortunate that such valuable AS MENTIONED last week, the the captains chosen by each team. links with the past, as those letters have heard of no one actually stat- local Branch are entertaining mem- It is proposed to have another have not been preserved.

> 52,000 poppy wreaths were distribannual appearance on Armistice craft" shops operated by DVA in and by the Red Cross in Victoria, (we believe during the Christmas branches for relief of needy ex- It was decided that the annual holidays) the boys there got to servicemen, and widows and de excursion to Buffalo would be held completely re- not receive government assistance. early in September. on the outstanding work carried on seek permission, from Branch 130 on hand as the week before, some week-end was the 50th anniver- is hoped that with the advent a Branch election becomes a- bit twenty members decided to organ- sary of the Boer War - and some spring, every imperial will make warm, but then, after all elections ize. It was decided also to hold on to tell of this having been the a sincere effort to be present a Last Thursday night the regular have the same effect on the blood immediately the singles champion- first time the Canadian Red Cross every meeting. ship for the past year. Jimmy had officially rendered amistance A hearty vote of thanks was to Dickenson is the present holder of to Canadian troops, at that time dered the hostess for her having a SPEAKING OF ELECTIONS, we that cup and anyone in the branch serving with the British Forces kindly allowed the organization to still not getting the attendance that hear that last Friday night you may play for it — not just those in trying to find out if any men use her house.

DART ENTHUSIASTS met in mittee. That is already very well in April.

> JIM MURPHY AGAIN IMPERIALS' PRESIDENT

OVER FIVE million popples and AT AN IMPERIAL meeting held uted throughout Canada last Nov- on Sunday afternoon, February ember 11th, according to the Sec- 26th, the annual election of officers > Sec'ty.-Treas. - Bob Muir -Executive - Alex Taylor, Mrs. T. Grieve, and Pat Heelan.

Jim Emmerson (who had left that morning for England), sent his Five dollars was voted to be sent

Although a few of the membe were unable to be present. the A RED CROSS news release to was an excellent attendence

YOURS TO PROTECT

The FLICKER is one of the first signs of spring. He's the large, brown woodpecker with golden-shafted wings and a white rump. He's the only woodpecker that normally feeds on the ground as well ca in trees. Pretect him-he's a valuable insect destroyer.

YOURS TO ENJOY THE CAME THE PROPERTY ! I THE TE

WATERLOO, OHTARRO

Furnace Work and Eavestroughing Good workmanship at reasonable prices

DON HOUSTON