I.O.D E. Chapter Has Busy Year in 1949

The tenth year of the Countess of Strathmore: Chapter, IODE, was one of activity, according to a report made at a recnt meeting by the secretary, Miss Hilds Erwin. The Chapter has 47 members and many worthwhile things were accomplished in 1949.

The Chapter continued "adopt" a school in Hallburton and under the direction of Mrs. Ern Batkin, sent several bales of clothingevalued at wer $200 to the school. A Christmas parcel was also sent Another yearly project was the sponsoring of a tag day for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind at which a good sum of money was raised. Mrs. Sam Mackenzie was convener.

The IODE sponsors health chinics twice monthly, when children are examined by the county Medical Officer of Health. With Mrs. W. C. Reynolds in charge this has proved of great benefit to the town and many mothers have taken advant. tage of the service provided. Anor ther yearly project is the sending of 2 food parcels to needy families overseas, plus a special box at Christmas. Mrs. Stan Grabb headed this committee, which also sent a bale of clothing overseas.

Two pictures were presented to the public school and three books to Cedarvale School by Miss Ruth Evans, educational secretary. A $10 burgary was continued to the high school and a $10 prize given to the best student in tourth form. Donations were sent to several IODE funds as well as Halton Music Festival, Georgetown Recreation Commission, Poppy Fund, Sick Children's Hospital and the Polish and European Fund.

Money making projects during the year included a Valentine kenzie and the sale of Christmas cards under the direction of Mrs. ing the year included the annual birthday party in Limehouse Memorial Hall and a picnic at the home of Mrs. Ern Batkin.

The Chapter entered a group exhibit, at the fall fair and from 41 entries received $11.70 in prize money. Three guest speakers addressed the ladies during the year -- Mrs. M. Outtier, superintendent Wilder and one son, Edgar, princi-Miss Allison, a high school teacher, and Mrs. O. M. Houston of Cedarvale School.
