Legion Notes

ALTHOUGH LAST FRIDAY night started off badly, with a blizzard in full swing, the weather cleared in time to allow two busloads from Branch 120 to attend the St. Patrick's dance in the Armories at Brantford. Everyone reports a good time, and the boys are loud in their praises of the treatment accorded them by the sponsors of the evening, the Lorne Scott-NGO Mess, Brantford.

THE ANNUAL ELECTION OF officers will be held at the Hall on Sunday afternoon, March 26th, at 2 p.m. It is hoped that every member of the Branch will be on hand for this very important event.

SPORT PLAYERS seem to be having trouble with getting the players all out for the tournament on hockey nights. Well, we guess you better hold it on a non-hockey night, fellows.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Owing to the SS supper being held in St. John's Memorial Hall on Friday, the Wolf Cubs "B" pack met Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Leaping Wolves are making an effort to pass tests. Already some have accomplished some of their objectives.

The Boy Scouts and the CGIT met together for a St. Patrick's party on Wednesday evening. ASM Bob Smith was MC for a Quiz program which was greatly enjoyed by all. A delicious lunch was served by the girls and their leaders.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the 1st Georgetown Boy Scouts Group met on Monday evening. It was decided that a first aid kit should be purchased for the troop.

The Boy Scout motto is — "Be Prepared."

The Law of the Wolf Cub is — "The Cub gives into the old wolf, the Cub does not give into himself."

MACKENZIE NEWS

The birds are singing and the new Spring hats are appearing aren't they silly but lovely — so winter must be on its way out.

If you would like a new front door lock set at a moderate price, we have a solid brass tubular set with a rim night latch at $7.00. We also have Dexter interior sets in solid brass, dull nickel, and with glass knobs at $2.50 to $4.50. These are the easiest to install and the most satisfactory lock sets on the market.

See you at the hockey game

YOURS TO PROTECT
The GRACKLE is a handsome blackbird, larger and more graceful than the starling, he's known by his long tail, greater size and more streamlined appearance. The coloring of the male is striking, with his green iridescent head. Protect him—he's a very attractive neighbor.
