SLIDING ALONG THE BOARDS

By Diner

With the Raiders in the third round of playoffs in Intermediate B, a resume of the games to date might be of interest. Since the group playoffs with Dixie began, Georgetown has won 11 straight games and scored 102 goals, with 36 goals against those scored in the 3 Dixie games were 11-1, 6-3 and 9-4. Victories against Caladons were 9-5, 16-4, and 14-3. Woodbridge were the victims, 7-4, 10-3, and 5-2. The two games with Wainfleet were won by scores of 9-2 and 6-3.

Bunny Morgason, always a good friend to Georgetown, gave Raiders some good publicity in his column in the Tely last week. We can always count on Bunny to give Georgetown a lift, and even though some of his statistics were not 100% the publicity is appreciated.

A former Raider, Art Hurst has been named most valuable player of the Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen and was chosen by fans to receive the Smuck trophy. We hope to have a picture of Art receiving the trophy for our next issue. Art, as you know, is married to the former Jessie Murphy of town.

Two other former Raiders, Hal Gibson and Kent Storey are back in these parts after ending their season with North Sydney, N.S. Hal is around town and Kent is at present in Toronto.

Travelling to Port Colborne arena Monday night brought back many a memory. One specially vivid memory was of the time we played junior hockey about 5 years ago. The team had won many games and was all pepped up to meet Port Colborne. Confidently we laughed and joked in the dressing room.

By the way, it was the Simcoe club and Raiders' Freddy Lawrence was in goal. Oh, yes, I was water boy!

The refereeing on Monday in Port Colborne was the worst we have ever witnessed. To give you an example, if a player lifted his stick above his waist he got a penalty — but if he lifted it higher and brought it down on his opponent's neck, no penalty. Raiders can play any style, and in the roughest battle of the year, they dished out a little more than they took.

Packer - Blair Wedding At St. Peter's, Erindale

In St. Peter's Church of England, Erindale, on Saturday, March 18th, the marriage took place of Dorcas Ann Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Blair, of Toronto, and John Ernest (Tom) Packer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Packer of London, England. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Banks, against a background of white spring flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown designed by her mother of white satin with yoke of French lace. The full skirt extended into a long train and a full-length veil was held by a coronet of orange blossoms. White carnations and coral roses made the bride's bouquet.

Miss Kathleen Matthews was her cousin's maid of honour, gowned in yellow taffeta with matching headpiece and carrying a cascade of yellow carnations. Miss Violet King was bridesmaid, gowned in yellow taffeta with matching headpiece and carrying long net mittens. Carole Lane, niece of the groom, and Mildred Sharpe were flower girls. They wore pink and blue taffeta with bands of flowers in their hair and carried nosegays of roses, hyacinths, and carnations.

The groom was attended by Charles McKee and ushers were Roy King and Dennis Hobbs. During the signing of the register, Mr. Fred Packer of Hamilton sang "Because."

At the reception held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. King, Streetsville, the bride with corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. Robert Lane of Georgetown, in blue taffeta with a corsage of yellow carnations. For a honeymoon trip, the bride changed to a brown suit and matching topcoat with pink accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. The couple will reside in Barrie.
