WIN ONE - TWO - THREE FROM SUNDRIDGE

Raiders Swamp Beavers 10-3 In Third Game Here Last Night

CHAMPIONSHIP IN OFFING

Play in Bracebridge on Thursday

What a record Georgetown Raiders are piling up in Intermediate B playoff competition. Nineteen straight wins, the last three against last year's champions, Sundridge Beavers. The final series started in Georgetown last Wednesday when Raiders won handily 12-7. A close game was registered in Bracebridge Saturday when Georgetown scored two goals in the last period to take a 6-5 win. Last night the largest crowd of this season saw Bucko McDonald's men vainly try to stem a fast-skating, inspired local outfit, which went wild in the second period to outscore them 6 goals to nothing. The final score was 10-3.

The teams resume their series in Bracebridge tomorrow and while it is possible that Bucko's men might take a game on home ice, it is almost a foregone conclusion that Sundridge hasn't the power to win the necessary four games to hold their championship. Should there be a fifth game it will be here on Saturday.

Chappel Scores Three

Harvey Chappel was a 3-goal man on Wednesday and Del Beamont was tops in playmaking, assistig on four goals while scoring one himself. Junior Beaumont got the most beautiful goal of the game when he went through the whole Sundridge team to score. He also tallied one other and two assists. Jack Kemshead scored two and others were divided among the Bradbury brothers, Martin and Ferri.

Bucko McDonald figured in almost all the visitors' scoring plays and showed the skill which made him a star in the major leagues, although he has slowed down somewhat from last year.

Six Men Up

The last two minutes of the game in Bracebridge was a game in itself when Sundridge made a desperate attempt to win the game by pulling their goalie and playing six men up. Georgetown got five shots on goal and missed them all. Chappel was again the scoring star with 2 goals and an assist. Leigh Bradbury played heads up hockey and although he only got one assist, he was the best on the ice for the locals. Del Beaumont had one and one, as did Max Bradbury. Martin got 2 assists, Kemshead and Ferri a goal apiece.

Del Beaumont Sparkles

It is impossible to pick any stars in last night's game. Certainly a lion's share of the credit goes to Del Beaumont for his four goals and one assist. A visiting NHL scout said Ferri and Martin won the game with their playmaking. Goalie Fred Lawrence was a stand out, especially in the last period when he stopped shot after shot as Sundrige went all out on power plays. Junior Beaumont had two beautiful goals all alone late in the game. Max Bradbury worried Bucko and rushed him on plays. Raiders could do nothing wrong. Beayers could do nothing right.

The third period was fast and rugged. Patterson and Lang tangled and were given majors in the dying minutes of the game, and frayed tempers on both teams almost led to a donnybrook.

Raiders May Play Senior 'B' Champs

There is a possibility that the present championship series won't finish hockey this season. There is a chance that a challenge game will be played between the Raiders and the winners of the Senior B series. Peterborough and Brantford are playing off for that championship now, each team having won two games. Strictly on the rumour sheet is that Raiders might bolster their line-up for such a game by the addition of Kent Storey and Hal Gibson, former Raiders who now play with North Sydney, N.S.

Local Skaters, Guest Stars Appear in GRC Ice Revue

Georgetown Skating Club presented their first annual Ice Revue last Friday under auspices and with active support from Toronto Skating Club. It was a fine show, from the opening "Mistress Mary" number by the junior members of the club to the finale when the whole cast appeared on the ice to take their bow.

The skating highlight of the show was the appearance of Peter Firstbrook, the 1950 junior champion of Canada and undoubtedly the finest skater one could expect to see in any show, large or small. Comedy numbers were well handled by Don Criber and by Ruggles and Clark of Weston. Don's parody of the Claire de Lune ballet drew the heartiest laughs of the night, but he had stiff competition from Ruggles & Clark, who in their second appearance dressed in harem costumes, added some spectacular adagio work to their comedy.

The club teacher, Miss Kathleen Amys, was prima ballerina in the Claire de Lune ballet, backed by a corps de ballet from Weston. Vivi Smith, who placed third this year in the senior Canadian ladies competitions, Mary Kenner and Mildred Harris were among the other visiting artists. A group from Weston did a clever Highland dance.

Interest was of course centred on the local club and they accredited themselves well in their French Legion number. Not a step was missed in the complicated march drill and they showed the benefit of their season's training. Members of the cast were Pauline Tyers, Marjorie Spence, Sandra Scott, Marilyn Warnes, Pat Vance, Lillian Norton, Marilyn Bell, Dolores Herrington, Gail Wheeler, Patsy Willson, Betty Lou Davis, Sue Crabtree, Janice Bradley, Leona Conn, Pat Day, Toots Murphy, Mildred Norton, Diane Harrison, Lillian Shepherd, Mary Barber, Dorothy Oates and Mrs. Jack Cuthbert.
