ATTEND FUNERAL OF AUNT AT BRUSSELS

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Cleave attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. A. Stafford at Brussels last Friday. Mrs. Stafford, who lived at Walton near Brussels was a native of Brampton. A sister of the late Matthew Williamson of Georgetown, she was the former Elizabeth Williamson.

NATURE UNSPOILED

YOURS TO PROTECT

The WHITE-THROAT'S whistling song is a typical sound of Canadian springtime. He feeds on the ground, searching among the leaves and twigs for beetles, grasshoppers, weed seeds and wild berries. Protect him—he's a valuable pest destroyer and a cheery friend.

YOURS TO ENJOY

Don't look now but we have a faint suspicion that the weather is most miserable. Rain, wind and all that sort of rot you know. Today being Tuesday (not today when you are reading this but today when we are writing it) we sincerely hope that the weather will be cleared up by tomorrow. We actually expected this sort of weather today as there was a ridge around the moon last night, and if anyone wants to know what we were doing looking at the moon, it's none of your darn business. Let us turn to more pleasant thoughts, thoughts like the fact that in only a few short (we mean short) weeks GHS will close its doors and once again the students will be free for two whole months, free to gambol gaily in the sunshine (if we ever get any) of the long summer days and the thought that at last indirect revenge will be wrought upon the teachers, such as, marking departmental exams down at the department.

Enough of that malarkey, let's get on with some more important stuff. First on the school activity agenda is the music festival Wednesday and Thursday. The festival this year is in Brampton at St. Paul's Church and we are quite sure that any attendance of Georgetown folks will be appreciated by the Georgetown contestants. Morale must be kept up, GHS cannot and will not lose the cup. If you, the public, get out and support these gals who have trained and practised hard and long to keep up the honour of old GHS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah. At long last a date has been set for the school dance, and it's about time. The date is May 12th and the place is Stewarttown Hall. We'll be dancing to the music of the Debonnaires. Admission is fifty cents and refreshments will be served. We have been led to believe that formal invitations will be sent to the High Schools in Milton, Acton and Erin. Let's have a good turnout for the Student Council's sake. There being no name as yet for the party we think that we shall take it upon ourselves to make up a name. Let's see now, hmmm, ahh, we got it! The "DOUBLECROSSED DOG DANCE."

Well, now we do have some good news on the board after all, for Monday morning the school was informed out of a clear blue sky that on the First of May, the following Monday we would have cadet inspection. The grounds being too wet for training since Christmas, we are sort of in a dither, for the grounds are still too wet to train on. The inspection is scheduled for ten o'clock and if we are to be in shape it's going to take nothing short of a miracle. We are afraid our only hope is for it to rain next Monday. Furthermore, the student body usually enjoys a half day holiday after Cadet inspection which is contingent upon our showing, so if we ones expects to get a half day holiday next Monday we had better get into shape darn fast or pray for it rain! (which it probably will anyway).

At the hobby show being sponsored by Georgetown Recreation Commission we learn that a group of students from second form will present a playlet entitled "Un Petit Trianon" on Friday night. This ought to prove very interesting because the "trianon" was the private chateau of Marie Antoinette, and if you knew Marie Antoinette like we knew Marie Antoinette, you'd go see the show.

Hal Davis Band Plays Huttonville

Huttonville Park, one of the finest dance spots in this part of Ontario, has scored a bulls eye this season with the engagement of Hal Davis and his Highlanders to play bi-weekly engagements every Wednesday and Friday.

The Davis outfit is known as one of the finest dance bands in the province and plays regularly during the winter at The Highlands in Galt. They are also popular in London where they often appear at Wonderland, a beautiful open air summer spot. Vero Norton is the vocalist with the Davis twelve-piece orchestra.

Next Wednesday marks the opening dance at Huttonville, which is noted not only for its fine dance hall but also for the picnic grounds and swimming and the Sunday evening sing-songs. It is only a short drive from Georgetown.
