United Presbytery Opposes Sunday Commercialization

Asks Members Not to Patronize Sunday Sport

Haltoun Presbytery of the United Church, at a meeting at Lowville last week, condemned the progressive commercialization of Sunday which they feel is a symptom of paganism and ultimately a greater threat than ever Communism. Christians must oppose this pressure and should be encouraged to make recreation a family matter, but not to patronize professional sports that draw huge crowds of spectators on Sundays. One who has made complete surrender to Christ, they feel, will not waste the Lord's day, whether the law allows it or not.

The Liquor License Board will be asked to drastically reduce the issuance of banquet permits, especially in "dry" areas where such permission is equivalent to bootlegging authorized by the state. The communities should not be overruled in such an undemocratic fashion, presbytery felt.

Church members were asked to aid in securing a better class of movie films and to withhold patronage for those depicting gangsterism, lust, drinking and other scenes contrary to standards of decency.

Rev. C. R. Albright, Freeleton, president and Rev. A. D. Penman, Lowville, and Stanley Turner, Trafalgar, conducted worship periods.

Rev. R. F. Mercer, Appleby, was elected chairman for the next conference year. Rev. William Delve, Bronte and Joseph Torrey, Freeleton, were re-elected treasurer and secretary. Rev. C. R. Albright and John Drummond, Millgrove, were appointed delegates to General Council. Rev. James Blair, Milton, is the new press reporter. Kind wishes were expressed to Rev. N. J. Truax, Carlisle and Rev. R. R. Hare, Millgrove, who are leaving the presbytery.

Rev. John M. Smith, Georgetown, convener of Christian Education, announced the World Religious Education Convention which will meet in Toronto for a week in August.

Rev. Alex Calder Gets B.D. Degree

Rev. Alex J. Calder, minister of Knox and Lincolnton Presbyterian churches, received his Bachelor of Divinity degree at the annual convocation of Knox College, Toronto, last Thursday.

A graduate of the University of Toronto and of Knox College in 1944 Mr. Calder is a native of Beaverton and is the son of Mrs. D. J. Calder and the late Mr. Calder. After graduation he served for a year in the mission field at Noraldon and was minister at Norwich for three years before coming to Georgetown. He received the call here after Rev. Charles G. Cochrane went to Melville Presbyterian Church at Westmount, Que.

Service Honours United Sunday School Workers

A service of special interest was held at St. John's Sunday School on Sunday morning. Tribute was paid to all who in the past and present had given of their time and energy in the promoting of the work of the Sunday School. Pictures of the superintendents of the school and of those who entered the full time service of the church were hung in Memorial Hall. These included Messrs. John Kennedy, J. D. Godfrey, Clarence D. McEachern, Howard Wrigglesworth, Norman Burns, Alan Prouse, and A. McLaren as superintendents and Mrs. Gordon Agnew, Rev. John McDermid and Rev. Arthur Dayfoot (now in China) as full-time servants of the Church.

Mrs. Agnew, at present on leave of absence with her husband from their missionary work in China, and Rev. John McDermid of St. Paul's Church, Brampton, were present and spoke brief words of commendation and challenge.

Mr. Alan Prouse, general superintendent of the school, paid tribute to the work of Mr. A. McLaren worship superintendent who leaves this week for his work with the United Church in Montreal.

Mr. Ernest Forgrave, attendance superintendent, reported on the advance that had been made and urged staff and pupils to continue their fine effort in the months ahead.

BAPTIST HIGHLIGHTS

Sunday morning at the Baptist Church, Rev. C. R. Gower read the lesson from Acts and called his sermon "Forming a Circle About Him". When Paul had been stoned and left as dead, the disciples formed a circle around him and prayed, and Paul rose up and went forth to preach the Gospel. As Christians we must form a circle around our fellowmen when they become discouraged and seek to give them strength to meet their problems. Sin frequently creeps in and break the circle. It should be cemented, together again or God's cause may go down in defeat.

"A New Convert's Sermon" was the evening theme based on a text from John. The material things of life are important to us until we know Jesus, then the unseen things become the greatest value. The spiritual life is the transformation of every Christian. The unrepentant sinner makes God a strong judge, instead of a loving father.

Music and Pictures Feature St. George's Choir Party

An evening of music combined with pictures of Canada entertained a group at St. George's Church last Friday. The concert was sponsored by the choir and featured Coloured Slides taken by W. F. Bradley on various trips across the continent.

Molra Kelly took solo leads in two numbers by the choir and solos were sung by Sylvia Lambert and Michael Armstrong. Mrs. Leslie Tomlinson and Thomas Warnes sang duets and a skit by Fred Helson and Jack Armstrong poked sly fun at various choir members. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson gave a reading, John D. Kelly was chairman and Mrs. W. F. Bradley pianist. Paul Barber played selections on the accordion.

Members of the choir taking part included W. F. Bradley, Jack Armstrong, Fred Helson, Thomas Warnes, Norman Tomlinson, Mrs. James Goddard, Margaret Bradley, Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Walter Blohn, Mrs. Grover Norton, Mrs. Ted Arnold, Margaret Hoare, Olive Moyer, Sylvia Lambert and Molra Kelly.
