FAIR LADY DIRECTORS SPONSOR EUCHRE PARTY

The lady directors of Esqueing Agricultural Society, under the presidency of Charlotte McCullough held a euchre party and dance in Stewarttown Hall last Wednesday. Doris Halls' Orchestra played and William Anderson was floor manager. There were 35 tables of euchre and prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Harding, Mrs. Bert Davidson and Campbell Sinclair. Lucky score prizes were won by Mrs. Jesse McEneaney and Joe McDonald.

LIMEHOUSE

SHOWER FOR COUPLE WHO WED SATURDAY

Miss Helen Shelbourne and Mr. Fred Cox were guests of honour at a largely attended shower at the Hall on Friday evening previous to their approaching marriage. Fred thanked their friends for the many useful and lovely gifts given them. Mrs. Ellerby as chairman announced a short program preceding the presentation, with vocal solos by Ann McLaughlin and Donnie Curry accompanied by Doris Harding and Jean Ruffell, piano solo by Neil Benton and readings by Mrs. Smethurst. Following lunch Mrs. Smethurst's Orchestra provided music for dancing.

We extend sympathy to the Patterson family and their mother in the sudden passing of Mr. Robert Patterson. Mr. and Mrs. Millere and Mr. and Mrs. H. Scratch motored to Niagara-on-the-Lake on Sunday. A number of fishermen were noticed observing the opening of the season along our local streams on Saturday and Sunday. Cadet Robin Bourne has completed his year at R.M.C. and is holidaying at home for a few weeks before taking over duties in British Columbia for the summer. His parents' attending closing exercises at R.M.C. last week.

The W.A. met at the home of Miss Ivens on Friday evening. The newly organized Limehouse softball club held a euchre and dance in the Hall on Friday evening. Men winning euchre prizes were A. C. Patterson and Frank Petch, and for the ladies were Inez Scott and Mrs. Jas. Jamieson. Lone hands prizes were won by Mrs. Fountain and Sydney Kirkpatrick, and Cliff McDonald won the door prize. George Smith and Mrs. Fred Schultz won the spot dance. Mr. Petch auctioned a number of donations other than those needed for prizes which helped raise the sum cleared on the affair to $100. Karn's Orchestra with Joe Scott, floor manager, donated their services free as were lunch and all the prizes. The large crowd attending was encouraging for those in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Orillia visited Mr. and Mrs. Mills during the week-end. We extend sympathy to Mr. Robert Coulter who attended the funeral services for his father at Napanee on Friday.

Mr. J. Roughley of Edmonton is visiting the J. E. Roughleys after spending a few weeks with her daughter in Chicago.

Miss Mary Wood of Toronto Normal School was a student teacher with Miss Ruddell at S. S. No. 9 last week.

Mr. Arthur Lane visited his mother on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jamieson of Toronto have been visiting the McVays.

The Roughleys visited cousins in London on Sunday.

The J. A. Smethursts were visitors with his mother on Sunday.

Alex Wright was home from Toronto over the week-end.

Dorothy Kirkpatrick celebrated her ninth birthday on Saturday with about a dozen little girls as guests at her home.

DON'T GO TO PRISON, MOTHER!!!

Go to the Memorial Hall in Limehouse this Friday evening if you want to hear the Head Gardener for the Guelph Reformatory, give a very educational talk on Home and Garden beautification. This is in support of the Limehouse Beautification Contest, but it will also be a great help to all who are entering the GEORGETOWN LIONS YARD BEAUTIFUL CONTEST.
