Chatting By M.H.B.

THE TOWN SEEMS to be fairly seething with the activities of various organizations these past few weeks. Guess everyone wants to wind up the winter fund-raising program before people are too engrossed in gardening and the delights of sitting out in their yards enjoying the long warm evenings that are bound to come sometime.

Those yards are going to come in for some special attention this year as a result of the "Yard Beautiful" contest the Civic Improvement Committee of the Lions Club is sponsoring. Think everyone does take a pride in the way the grounds of their home look, but this contest will stimulate it just a little more. Entry blanks with all the rules and regulations have been personally addressed and mailed out to everyone on the Voters' List, but just in case there has been a slip-up on your name, you may get an entry form at Ernie's Radio. They tell me there are to be two classes — one for owners and one for tenants, and yards will be judged on the point system. Naturally the Lions (none of whom will be eligible for the prize) are looking for a big response to their scheme. Similar contests have been sponsored in other centres with great success, because in addition to winning one of the $15, $10 or $5 prizes offered in each class, there is the tremendous satisfaction of creating a lovely yard, as well as a more beautiful town.

Date for contest closing on June 17 and judging will be done by two members of the club and one non-member — and the identity of the judging committee has been kept secret.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. M. Brynna and Yvonne Adams, Miss McNiven plan to visit her brother in Scotland.

Was interested to learn that Const. and Mrs. Harry McMurtry of Perth have had a son. Const. McMurtry was on the local Police Force here some time ago.

Visiting friends in town one day last week, Mrs. S. P. Chapman of Toronto was telling us that their daughter, Virginia, is going into training as a nurse in St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto. Virginia has been on the staff of a Toronto bank since completing her business course.

WALKING ALONG McNab Street the other day, we noted that the foundation has already been excavated for Will Mino's house on the corner of McNab and Emory Street. Mr. Mino purchased the property from Fred Armstrong whose own property adjoins.

Harry Watkins has given up his position at Provincial Paper Ltd. to take up farming on his farm near Milton. Mrs. Watkins was our predecessor as the Chatting columnist.

Also moving out to a farm, are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Crichton and baby son. Mr. and Mrs. Crichton have been living in an apartment in Berwick Hall, and will now be making their home with Dick's brother, Ray Crichton, on the 9th Line. Dick will commute each day to his position in the Engineering Dept. at Smith & Stone Ltd.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Francis have moved into the upstairs apartment at the Bowers' home, Emory Street.

BIGGEST EVENT of the week will be the three day and night Hobby Show held by the Recreation Commission in St. John's Hall. What a wonderful response it got from the townspeople, and deservedly so. A splendid exhibit filled the large Hall as well as another room, and the special programs arranged for each night were run off like clockwork.

Actually, we could fill an entire column about the Hobby Show alone, we were so enthused about it. Perhaps it would be better, tho, to save some for another week, and tell you a little at a time.

SOMETHING ENTIRELY new

in creative work with lucite was being demonstrated by Mr. Tichbourne, and it was really beautiful. These objects were created by taking a piece of clear lucite, cutting and shaping it to the desired form, be it ear-rings, locket, book-end or table ornament — and carving in a flower design at the back of it. This was done by hand, and colour or dye inserted in the design and sealed in, so that effect was that of seeing a perfect little flower enclosed in clear crystal.

We were told that making these articles is a hobby with Mr. Tichbourne, who is production manager with Kippen-Ker Ltd. here. While in town, Mr. Tichbourne stays at the home of Mrs. D. W. Baxter, Charles Street, but on weekends he returns to his home in Port Credit, where the production of these lovely little lucite objects is sort of a family project—one person doing the cutting and polishing, one the carving, one the colouring, etc.

THEN, COMING on the same night as the last night of the Hobby Show, St. George's Choir held a concert and coloured slides of a trip across Canada, taken at various times by Mr. W. F. Bradley. They were outstanding, and on a par with those of Mr. Sholto Buck we told you about last week. And that's saying something—altho they are quite different in that Mr. Buck's are moving pictures and Mr. Bradley's are "stills". Starting with our newest province, Newfoundland, Mr. Bradley takes us right out to Vancouver with them, via the camera. The colours are gorgeous, and we were particularly interested in the Newfoundland series, and the rugged grandeur of that sparsely settled region.

Incidentally, the new addition to St. George's Sunday School has been virtually completed, and adds greatly in comfort, attractiveness and convenience to the church school room. The new building connects the Sunday School with the St. George's Clubhouse, and a large modern kitchen is included.

JUST LEARNED the other day that Mrs. James Murphy is visiting in England at present.

And planning a trip to the British Isles and especially Scotland is Miss Jean McNiven, formerly of town but now of Montreal, who spent a weekend in town recently with Mrs. Maude Robinson and renewed acquaintances with many Georgetown friends, includ-

Hamilton Cleric Speaks To St George's Laymen

Rev. M. C. Robertson of St. James Church, Hamilton, was speaker at a banquet held by the Laymen's Association of St. George's Church of England last Wednesday in the church basement. Mr. Robertson is a nephew of a former rector of Norval, Stewarttown and Hornby, Rev. E. O. Twiss of Uxbridge.

He spoke of the lack of a united front among Anglican men and said that it should be the aim of such an organization as that which he addressed to do something for their fellow-men and for the community. He told of the Toc H organization which was founded by three padres at Ypres during the first war and which had continued to grow and thrive after the war because of the principles upon which it was founded. His advice for living a full Christian life was "Think fairly; love widely; witness humbly; and build bravely."

Chairman Jack Armstrong announced a work night at the church in May and an auction sale in June. Fred Chapman introduced the speaker and Fred McNally extended thanks from the group for his talk. A. E. Dawson thanked the ladies of the W.A. who catered for the dinner. Included in the program were songs by Thomas Warnes, Mrs. W. F. Bradley at the piano, accordion numbers by Paul Barber and a humorous song by W. F. Bradley.
