NORVAL
County Scout Rally At Norval in June

Parents and friends of the 1st Norval Troop and Pack will be interested to know that plans are under way for the Peel County Sports Day which will be held this year at Norval on either the first or second Wednesday in June. Sports will commence in the early evening. There will be a sandwich supper, and the evening will conclude with a huge campfire and a programme in which every County Pack will have some part. This is quite an undertaking for the Norval Group but can easily be accomplished with the cooperation of all those interested in the Scout and Cub movement in Norval. Last year our Group did exceptionally well against stiff competition both at Streetsville and Brampton and as a result of their success Norval has been chosen as the site of this year's Field Day by the Peel Executive who honoured our boys in this manner.

On Friday evening the members of St. Paul's Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Caseley in honour of their recent marriage. At the conclusion of a pleasant social hour Mr. Walter Fidler read an address of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Caseley, and Miss Doreen Jolley presented them with cornflower crystal and china book-ends as a gift from the congregation with all good wishes for a happy future.

The closing meeting of the Norval Women's Institute took the form of a theatre and supper party on Tuesday evening. The ladies motored to Brampton where they saw "Ma and Pa Kettle Go to Town" and from there to the Yellow Briar Inn for supper and a social hour. This group is to be congratulated on the many fine projects undertaken this past year and for its admirable response to appeals for aid from outside Social Service organizations.

Thursday is Ascension Day and a celebration of the Holy Communion will be held in St. Paul's Church at 10 a.m.

Bonnie Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fundley was baptized by Rev. J. L. Self on Sunday in Norval Presbyterian Church. At a similar service in Union Church, Robert Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bishop was baptized.

Janet Burrows, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold "Duke" Burrows had some of her little friends at a party to celebrate her third birthday last Thursday. They were Wendy and Linda Saunders, Barbara Finlay and Jill Runham.

BALLINAFAD
MOTHER'S DAY SERVICE AT BALLINAFAD UNITED

Mother's Day programme was observed in the church service Sunday morning, the theme being "God Works Through Homes". The story of Timothy was told by Jean Sinclair and the dramatization by Ruth Marshall, Muriel Hills and George Cook. Mrs. W. Gibb sang a very appropriate solo.

Mr. Arnold McEnery is in Toronto General Hospital where he expects to undergo an operation on his leg.

The flowers on the communion table Sunday morning were placed there by Mrs. W. Cassidy in memory of her mother, the late Mrs. Peter Cole.

Mrs. J. Kirkwood, Shirley and Mr. B. McMenemy spent the weekend with relatives at Listowel.

The pupils of Blue Mountain School are enjoying an extra holiday due to the illness of their teacher, Miss Shirley Dodd. It's an ill wind that blows nobody good.
