Three Attendants At Ingles-Mossop Wedding Saturday

Knox Presbyterian Church was the scene of a lovely wedding, Saturday, June 10th, when Jean Alberta Mossop, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Daniel Mossop, R. R. No. 4, Georgetown, and Kenneth Silas Ingles, son of Mrs. Ernest Ingles, Acton, and the late Mr. Ingles were united in marriage. Rev. Alex Calder performed the wedding ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown was of imported white satin, fashioned with bustle effect and a long train. The lace yoke was embroidered with seed pearls, and her coronet headdress was also made of seed pearls, from which a full length veil fell. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep red roses.
The bride's attendants included her sister as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Mrs. George Duke, Maple Avenue, Georgetown, who was gowned in pale orchid net over taffeta, a wreath of daisies trimming the long-torso bodice and the neckline. Her hat, with shoulder length veil, matched the dress, and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses and maiden-hair fern. Bridesmaids were Miss Grace Foster, Cheltenham, and Miss Marion Stamp, Glen Williams, wearing gowns fashioned the same as the matron-of-honor's, Miss Foster in Nile green nylon net over taffeta, and Miss Stamp in apricot-pink net over taffeta, both with matching headdresses. They carried nosegays of pink and yellow roses. The flower-girl was Gail Roszell, Acton; niece of the bridegroom, in floor-length frock of yellow silk with nylon net, with a wreath of flowers in her hair, and carrying a little basket of sweet peas.
Mr. Bert Taylor of Barrie was groomsmen, and usher, were the groom's brother, Mr. Bill Ingles, Acton, and the bride's brother, Mr. Dan Mossop.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the bride's home, where seventy guests were received. Mrs. Mossop wore navy blue sheer and corsage of roses, assisted by Mrs. Ingles, who wore a pastel blue flowered dress with navy accessories and corsage of roses.
For the wedding trip to North Bay, the bride changed to a going-away suit of navy blue gabardine, with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Ingles will reside in Acton.

TWO TAXI FIRMS COMBINE BUSINESS

Two district taxi firms have announced a merger. Georgetown Taxi, operated by Jim Ross and the Glen Taxi, operated by Fred Leeder have combined and will run two cars in Georgetown and Glen Williams.

Georgetown Taxi was purchased by Mr. Ross several years ago from Russell Thompson, who established it and is located in part of the Cordaro Building on Main Street. The Glen Taxi is operated by Mr. Leeder in conjunction with the Glen Variety Shop.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Metcalfe, Stewart and Betty were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hutchinson, Iola, Brenda, Carol, James and Gordon of Markdale. Iola is remaining for a longer visit.
