Hockey Banquet at Guelph Honours Intermediate Champs

Players Get OHA Medals, Bench Coats from Town Dinty Moore Presents Championship Trophy.

Members of the Georgetown Raiders, Intermediate B hockey champions this year were tendered a dinner and presentation last Thursday in the banquet hall of the Royal Hotel, Guelph. The dinner was jointly sponsored by the Board of Parks Management and the Hockey Club and was attended by over one hundred, including members of the town council and their wives.

Tory Gregg, first vice president of the Ontario Hockey Association, presented OHA medals to the team. He said he was only sorry for one thing — Georgetown had beaten all the good intermediate clubs in Ontario except his home town team of Wingham and it was too bad these teams could not have met. He complimented the Georgetown club for never asking for anything "under the table" and always playing square with OHA headquarters.

Those receiving medals were: players Ken Nash, Del Beaumont, Fred Lawrence, Scotty Patterson, Junior Beaumont, Jack Kemahead, Leigh Bradbury, Max Bradbury, Nick Ferri, Rene Martin, Bill Hewitt, Johnny Haines, Clem Dwyer, Glenn Scott and Harvey Chappel. All were present except Chappel who is away for the summer playing ball at Temiskaming, Quebec. Medals also went to coach Ken Braithwaite, trainer Don Barrager and manager Bruce MacKenzie.

Town Gives Bench Coats
The town's gifts to players on the championship team were handsome blue-grey bench coats, each player's number emblazoned in yellow on the sleeve and a crest on the front. Mayor Harold Cleave and Reeve W. G. Marshall officiated at this presentation.

A highlight of the evening was when Del Beaumont was called forward to receive the OHA Most Valuable Player Award from club president Bob Lane. He had been chosen for this honour by vote of his team-mates.

Ken McMillan is chairman of the town's committee. After a turkey dinner, Ken McMillan, honorary president of the hockey club, was chairman for a program of speeches and awards. He expressed the great pride which everyone felt in the team which was strictly amateur and had won two Ontario championships in three years. Requisites for a winning team were good players, a good, energetic and good fans, he said, and Georgetown had all three of these. There had been a better spirit of cooperation and friendliness on the team this year than ever before, he said, and this was in great part due to coach Ken Braithwaite.

One of the greatest benefits from hockey, Mr. McMillan continued, was the friendships made in other communities. An example of this was at St. Joseph d'Alma, Quebec, where the Raiders had played against Dolbeau three years ago. This year when the championship was won, the French language paper there had headlined the victory.

One Ahead On Debentures

President Bob Lane asked several of those present who had worked for the good of the club to take a bow and welcome the best of luck to the dinner. Mayor Harold Cleave, an old hockey player himself, complimented the Parks Board on the excellent accommodation and ice they had provided and congratulated club and coach on their victory. W. G. Bell, speaking for the Parks Board, said that the arena has paid this year and that payments were one ahead on the $30,000 debenture issue for artificial ice. He had been disappointed to see small crowds at games during the season and said he didn't know what people want, for if they have a poor team, they won't go, to games; because they aren't winning and if there is a good team, many hold back until the finals.

Coch Braithwaite singled out Jack Wilson for praise in providing such good ice all season. E. V. MacCormack, one of Georgetown's most faithful fans, spoke of the game from the spectator's point of view, and said how gratifying it had been to get the cup from Bucko after being beaten by Sundridge last year. He left the thought that character is a victory, not a gift. Others who spoke a few words included Reeve W. G. Marshall, Herald editor Walter Biehn and Norm Locking of Port Elgin, a former pro and referee, who played against the Raiders with Owen Sound four years ago.

Trophy Presented

A past president of the OHA, Dinty Moore of Port Colborne, was asked to present the trophy to team captain Ken Nash. Mr. Moore said he had been sorry to see Georgetown drop to "B" ranks after winning an "A" championship and that the next step should be to Senior B. This year he thought the Raiders would have been a match for Port Colborne's Senior B champions.

He gave an interesting account of his trip to Europe this year with the Sudbury hockey team which had played in several European countries, and made some sober reflections on conditions which he had noticed in Communist dominated countries.

Tribute to Mrs. Engleby

Lovely bouquets of flowers were presented by W. G. Bell to Mrs. Braithwaite, Mrs. Ken McMillan to Mrs. Del Beaumont and by J. J. Gibbens to Mrs. Jack Harrison, who has the record of being first in the arena at almost every game. Mr. Bell said that Mrs. Harrison would receive a season's pass to the games next year for her interest. One minute's silence was observed in memory of Mrs. William Engleby, another faithful hockey fan, news of whose death that day had been received. Mrs. Harold Cleave expressed the thanks of the ladies present for being included in the party. After the dinner, an hour's dancing was enjoyed to music provided by George Glasford, Reg Ryall and Mrs. J. L. Barber.

Hartley-Shields Reunion Held at Lowville Park

One hundred and forty registered at the Hartley-Shields reunion on Saturday, June 10th, at the County Park, Lowville. Although it was a cool and windy day, every one enjoyed a pleasant and interesting day. Many favourable comments were heard about this new park. The sports committee with the exception of Jim Atterton, Hartley-Shields and Hartley Anderson in charge had been competition in all races. Prizes were given to all winners. Bingo for old and young created much merriment and for this game Ken family contributed suitable prizes. As was evident by 5:30 p.m. all members were ready for the picnic style supper that was prepared. Families soon gathered and race was sung. Besides the tea, coffee and ice-cream supplied, Mr. Roy Walls again favoured everyone with chocolate bars, various kinds of candy, peanuts and cigars for the smokers.

The president, Hartley Anderson, gave a welcome, and especially to sixteen from Michigan, also sincere thanks to all for their generous help and kindly cooperation in making this eighth Hartley-Shields reunion possible. In the absence of Mrs. David Hartley, secretary, through illness, Mrs. E. M. Readhead was acting secretary, and read the minutes of the 1949 reunion. Mrs. Lorne Shaw gave the treasurer's report. A minute of silence was observed in memory of the two loved ones who had passed away since the last reunion. Immediately following was an impressive devotional service by Kenneth Sims.

His daughter, Verna Sims accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Sam Porter, sang a hymn, then he read the 103rd Psalm, commented on its truths, and led in prayer.

Roy Walls was asked to conduct the election of officers for 1951. They are:

President, Joe Southon, Hamilton; Secretary, Hartley Sims, Oakville; Secretary, Mrs. David Hartley, Milton; Treasurer, Mrs. Jack Smith, London. Extra committees will be named at the Spring Executive.

Some special prizes were awarded to the member coming the longest distance, Jim Hartley, Mt. Forest, Michigan; to the oldest member present, Peter D. Hartley, Milton; to the youngest member, Boneta Coulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Coulson, Kilbride; to the most recently married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Lyon, Toronto.

Invitations were given to every family to attend the Hartley-Shields, reunion at Carroll Park, Bay City, Michigan, on Saturday, July 15. Next came the program: With Joe Southon, the new president as master of ceremonies, Mrs. Robert Anderson at her own piano; Mrs. Lorne Shaw with her violin; and Colin Anderson with his cornet community singing was started. Then individual numbers were given:

Duet and solo numbers by Donna Myrtle and Joanne Smith, London; piano selections by Mary Ann Southon, Hamilton; A trio, with Mrs. Hartley Anderson, at the piano, Mrs. Lorne Shaw, violin and Colin Anderson, cornet played the Lord's Prayer; Mrs. Herb Lyon favoured with a solo; a duet by Misses Verna and Betty Sims; a solo by Mrs. Hartley Anderson, then a few more community songs, finishing up by all joining hands and singing

SPORTSMHIP IN CANADA UNLIMITED

Fourteen thousand track fans packed the Melbourne, Australia, stadium. It was 1934... year of the city's centennial. To celebrate the event, crack collegiate athletes from Canada, Australia and New Zealand were competing in a special sports festival. Canada's 12-man team—largest of its kind to represent the nation abroad—looked top honours. They won 8 of 11 events and shattered three Australian track records. Later, in New Zealand, they repeated their feat... taking 10 out of 12 top honours to make a clean sweep of the Dominion down under.
