Presentation at Oakville For New Teacher Here

Miss Luena Campbell, who has resigned her position as principal of S. S. No. 12, Trafalgar at Maple Grove near Oakville to accept a position on the staff of the Georgetown Public School, was honored last Wednesday evening by members of the community. Ex-pupils, trustees, and parents gathered at the school for a social evening and presented her with a wrist watch as a token of affection for her years of service as a teacher at the school. A former school board chairman, E. L. Wilson was chairman and several of those present were called on for brief remarks. In the afternoon, her school pupils presented her with a leather purse and pair of gloves. Miss Campbell, who lives on George Street with her mother, Mrs. G. C. Campbell, has commuted to Oakville during her teaching term at Maple Grove.
