STAY-AT-HOME CAMP PLANNED
Registrations are coming in rapidly for the Stay-at-Home camp and there is still room for many more boys and girls, ages 6 to 15. Camp is July 17th to 28th except Saturdays and Sundays. Camp will start each day at 9:45 at one of the churches: girls 6-10 at the Presbyterian Church, boys 6-10 at the United Church and boys and girls 10-15 at the Baptist Church. There will be no lunch provided as children are to go home for meals. However, for country children and others bringing lunches, facilities will be provided at the Old Town Hall. The program is a full one and everything that boys and girls like to do at camp is being included so that it will be a great camp. Registration forms are available at the Herald Office.

NORVAL WINS TWO GAMES
Norval Central Peels won two important games last week, defeating Hespeler 18-3 and blasting the league leaders Milton 11-1. Milton lost the game on numerous penalties for rough play which kept them shorthanded during most of the game. Clark Lyons tallied 4 goals, Beaumont, Laidlaw and Moddison two each and Norval one. Brantford plays at Norval next Monday with a midget game scheduled first at 7:15. Arrangements have been made for bus transportation for local fans, leaving the
