

BOWLING NEWS

TORONTO BOWLERS PAY YEARLY VISIT HERE

Georgetown lawn bowlers are enjoying a very successful season so far this year. There are quite a few new members, who are always a welcome asset to any club. The usual men's doubles Monday nights are well attended and create quite a lot of fun and good bowling. On the evening of June 22nd, forty five bowlers came by bus from Toronto and enjoyed an evening with the local club. The evening ended with a fine lunch supplied by the lady bowlers. The prize list was large and the following were in the money; Hugh Dickie, and S. T. Faram from Georgetown, and J. McCool, B. Secord, T. Byrnes, A. J. O'Dell, H. Hotchkiss, J. Paterson, J. Brown, G. W. Harris, C. B. Wood, J. J. O'Neill, H. Thurgarland, H. C. Price, A. M. Chyette, F. D. West, H. J. McKelvie and M. McLennan of Toronto. On Saturday the 30th, two rinks of trebles journeyed to Acton to take part in their tournament and the rink skipped by W. G. McDowall, with Lew McKibbin and W. G. Ball won first prize. A series of games between Acton, Rockwood, and Georgetown each Wednesday night is creating quite a lot of interest.

You're Our Kind of Customer!

You are the customer we're trying to serve in such a way you'll want to come back again and again!

There's Mrs. Joe Q. Brown who comes in from the farm every Saturday to do her weekly shopping. Maybe this week she'll need a new housedress . . . Or perhaps just the right zipper for a new dress she's making for her granddaughter. She's our kind of customer too . . . just as is Mrs. Jack Y. Jones who hurriedly stopped by for a new work shirt for friend husband and incidentally selected some new nylons for her new summer outfit.

Why on our list of "people-we-like-to-deal-with" you'll find the names of business women, school girls, farm women, housewives . . . people with a lot of money . . . people with just enough! No one likes to have just one kind of friend . . . that's why you're ALL our kind of customer.
