TWO WINS BOOST NORVAL TO LACROSSE LEADERSHIP

With two more wins last week, Norval Central Peels pulled into the lead in their Intermediate A lacrosse group. Brantford were the victims in both cases; Norval winning three-10-8 on Saturday and at home 12-8 Monday.

Clark Lyons and Bill Laidlaw sparked the team at Brantford, the former getting 4 goals and Laidlaw a goal and 4 assists. Townsend, Beaumont, Gardhouse, Clark and McCandless also tallied and Beaumont had three assists to his credit.

Beaumont was a four goal man Monday, with Townsend and Madgett contributing two each and Laidlaw, Moddison, Gardhouse and Clark singles.

Playing for Norval on Monday night were Bob Bignell, John Gardhouse, Frank Wilkinson, Scotty Moddison, Peter Clark, Ron Madgett, Junior Beaumont, Johnny Haines, Bill Laidlaw, Lloyd Crawford, Doug McLean, Doug Townsend, Bill Louth and Jim Cleave.

Joe Murphy and Lew Vipond of Mimico were referees.

Bernard Tennant Loses Leg In Plant Accident

Bernard Tennant lost his right leg in an accident at the Bernardmore plant in Acton last Wednesday morning. He was working on a new machine which had just been installed in the plant. Rushed to Guelph General Hospital it was necessary to amputate the leg above the knee.

A Georgetown boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tennant, Bernard served overseas with the army, where he met and married an English girl. He had been employed in Acton since returning home after the war.

Clayton Wilsons are Bousfield Reunion Hosts

The spacious lawn, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson, R. R. 3 Georgetown, was the setting for the eighteenth Bousfield Reunion, held Saturday, July 8th, with over one hundred and fifty in attendance. Mrs. E. McPhail, Mrs. Robt. Fox of Milton, Mrs. T. J. Fisher and Mr. Hodgen Barnes of Georgetown, and Mr. Thomas Bousfield of Moffat, assisted in welcoming the guests.

After a delicious picnic dinner, the president, Frank Wilson, gave a short address of welcome and asked for a minute of silence in memory of the loved ones who had passed away since the last reunion. Clarence Bousfield, of Hagersville, secretary of the reunion, read a short historical sketch of the family, it being over one hundred years since the late John Bousfield and Elizabeth (Alderson) Bousfield came from England and settled in Trafalgar Township.

The sports committee, with Spencer Wilson, Guy Buswell and Meldrum Stark in charge, carried out a program of games and races during the afternoon.

At the supper hour the election of officers for the next reunion was held and resulted as follows: President—Wilson B. Sutton, Hillsburgh.

1st Vice-President—Robert Laking, Moffat.

2nd Vice-President—Spencer Wilson, Norval.

Secretary—Clarence Bousfield, Hagersville.

Treasurer—Mrs. Archie Gunby, Campbellville.

Prizes to the oldest lady and gentleman present were awarded to Mrs. E. McPhail, Milton, and Mr. John Wilson of London. A prize to the youngest member in attendance was given to Lois Jean Hunter, seven-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunter, of Freeman.

Guests were present from Lacombe, Atala, London, Hagersville, Dundas, Toronto, Norwood, Burlington, Watford, Guelph, Milton, Acton, Campbellville, Carlisle and Kibride.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bain and Gloria are leaving this week-end for a two-week vacation which they will spend near Little Current on Manitoulin Island.

S&S Sales Representative Killed in Motor Accident

Fred Leavitt of Montreal, eastern sales representative for Smith & Stone Ltd., was instantly killed in a head-on motor collision a week ago Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt were returning home from a week-end fishing trip in the Ottawa district. Mrs. Leavitt was seriously injured in the crash and is still in Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal.

Mr. Leavitt had been in charge of company product sales from Quebec to Halifax for the past twenty years and had often visited the Georgetown plant. Mr. Wilfrid Ford, who had been closely associated with him during this time flew to Montreal for the funeral service last week. He is survived by his wife and one daughter in Cleveland, Ohio.

LIONS CLUB MEETS AT RAY WHITMEE'S

A meeting of the Lions Club was held last Tuesday at the home of Ray Whitmee when members heard a report of the convention at Gravenhurst by the two delegates, Clarence Kennedy and Don Barringer. The new president, Jack Armstrong was in the chair for the first time. Edwin Wilson was named chairman of a committee to investigate a major club project in which members have expressed an interest. Plans were made for Lions to entertain their wives at an evening at the Brant Inn at Burlington this month.

May Purchase Church For Peel Museum

A committee representing 25 organizations in Peel County is investigating the possibility of buying Mount Pleasant United Church for use as a county museum. The church, a few miles west of Brampton, has been closed for some time. It was part of the Norval circuit which comprises churches at Norval and Glen Williams. C. V. Charters of Brampton heads the committee which is investigating the purchase.

NORVAL

Farewell Gift From Guides to Miss McCrae

The 1st Norval Guide Company and Brownie Pack held their closing meeting for the summer months last Wednesday in St. Paul's Parish Hall. There were many visitors present, including a number of Guides from the Acton Company. Four new Brownies were enrolled, Juannie Marshall, Crystal Louth, Margaret Miller, and Diane Sherring. Golden Bars and Golden Hands were presented by Mrs. Jaffray, District Commissioner from Oakville and were awarded to the following Brownies: Nancy Fishburn, Colleen Grady, Lois Jaryic, Linda White, Elsie Donaldson, Joyce McLean, Marie Harrop, Carol Hunter, and Golden Hands to Elaine Laird and Paddy Lucas. At the same time, the two Brownies who had won their Golden Hands flew up to Guides, and along with Nancy Fishburn, Colleen Gray and Marie Harrop, who went up to Guides on their "squirrel tails" were welcomed into the Guide Company by the leader, Mrs. E. C. Reed. Mrs. Reed also presented badges to a goodly number of the Company who had earned them during the past few months. A surprise feature of the evening to the Brownie Leader, Miss Gladys McCrae, was the presentation of a dresser set from the Company and Pack as a gesture of appreciation for her help during the past two years. Miss McCrae has resigned from the Public School here to take a position in Hespeler.

There was a splendid attendance at the Anglican Rally in Lowville Park on Sunday when an official welcome was extended to the Right Rev. W. E. Bagnall, Bishop of Niagara. Those taking part in the service included Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson, Georgetown; Rev. C. Heathcote, Burlington; Rev. R. E. Porritt, Lowville, and Mr. Daniel Pope, President of the Halton Deanery Laymen's Association. The address was delivered by the Bishop. Throughout the afternoon the Regimental Band of the Lorne Scots was in attendance and the choir was composed of junior choirs within the Deanery of Halton.

A Vacation School will be held in Norval under the auspices of the three churches, commencing Monday, July 17th. As present stand classes will be held in the basement of the United church, in the Parish Hall, and at the Recreation Grounds. A splendid program has been outlined, and parents who are interested in this project are asked to contact any of the local clergy, and if they can assist in any way their help will be much appreciated. Classes will be held in the mornings only.

Friends of Mr. George Sharpe will be sorry to hear that he is ill in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, and it is hoped that he will soon be recovered sufficiently to come back home.

Mrs. Harold Gollop and Miss Barbara Gollop have been holidaying at Spaul Beach.

Mrs. R. Gollop and Mr. George Gollop visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hudson in Kitchener on Sunday.

AC2 Audrey Hudson spent the week end in Norval.

ACTON HOTEL SOLD TO TORONTO MEN

J. H. Roydon has sold his Dominion Hotel in Acton to two Toronto men, F. J. Dawson and Harold Dedala, who will take possession in the near future.

HORNBY

Roy Brownridge and June Neelands Marry

June Laurine Neelands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Neelands of Hornby was married to Roy Emerson Brownridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Brownridge, Milton, in St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, with Rev. Fred Ainsworth officiating. Mrs. Reginald Neelands sang "The Way of Golden Promise" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white satin and net. A halo of orange blossoms held her finger-tips veiled and she carried Tallman roses. Mrs. Douglas Sherman was matron of honour for her sister, Mrs. Johnston Neelands and Mrs. Reginald Neelands were bridesmaids and the bride's niece, Carol Neelands was flower girl.

The attendants all wore lemon yellow corded taffeta and net, similar in style to the bridal gown, in ballerina length. They carried cascades of green carnations. The flower girl was in white taffeta with mauve net overdress and she carried a nosegay of yellow carnations and mauve sweet peas.

William Lawson was greensman and the ushers were John Cantelon and Ronald Featherstone. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Three County Fairs Have Saturday Show

Dates have been set for most of the district fall fairs. Georgetown will again have the first week-end after the CNE, September 15-16 while Acton gets the next week-end September 22-23. Milton takes the third week-end, September 29-30.

Erin and Woodbridge have conflicting dates again this year, both choosing the Thanksgiving week-end, October 7 and 8. The three-day show at Brampton will be held from October 5 to 7. Caledon has set their fair date the same as Acton, Orangeville has a mid-week show September 19-20. Bolton's fair is September 29-30.

The Canadian National Exhibition dates this year are August 25 to September 9. The Western Fair at London will be on from September 11-16. The International Plowing Match is planned for October 10-13 near Aliston. The Royal Winter Fair comes November 14-22 at Toronto.

GLEN GARDEN PARTY AIDS FLOOD DAMAGE

The Double or Nothing Club of Glen Williams United Church is planning a garden party on Friday with proceeds earmarked for repairing flood damage which the church suffered this spring. The show will be held at the lacrosse grounds, and if weather does not permit this it will go on in the church auditorium.

Chris Garner and his magic show will play its first appearance in this district. In addition to Mr. Gardner the show features dancer Audrey Scott, singer Marlene Girard and impersonator Bud Watson with Jack Evans as emcee. The Lorne Scots Band is donating its services for the evening and a huge crowd is anticipated.

LIMEHOUSE
