THE MAIL BAG
OH, OH, STEAMER'S DOWN FOR THE COUNT
Limehouse, Ontario, August 1st, 1950

Dear Mr. Editor:
The appeal in last week's edition of the "Herald" for better umpiring was admirable in principle — but coming from "Steamer" it's the height of something or other.
In his previous week's report, "Steamer" garbled the news, and from the plethora of his analytical wisdom proclaimed that umpires were as blind as bats, but the umpire wasn't "bat-blind" to the hard ball bat "Steamer" horns-worgled into the game against Limehouse; neither to his defiance of the umpire's ruling that he cease and desist from using said bat; nor to his plea that such use was justified because he had played it in six other immediately preceding games.

To simon-pure Limehouse ruralites, six "wrongs never did" — and never will — make a right. "Steamer" should get acquainted with the Limehouse Club's public relations department, and learn therefrom that — as with files — umpires are more susceptible to sugar than to vinegar.
Unpiningly yours,
Joe Scott.
