The marriage of a former Georgetown girl, June Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Clarke of Brampton to Donald Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Ray, Port Credit, was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, September 9th, in Grace United Church, Brampton. Amidst a setting of mauve and yellow gladioli, Rev. R. Davidson officiated and Miss J. Milner was at the organ. Miss Mary Hewson, cousin of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "Through the Years" while the register was being signed.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully gowned in a hand-tailored white brocaded satin gown and carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Miss Betty Clarke was her sister's maid of honour wearing mauve brocaded satin and carrying yellow gladioli. The bridesmaids were the groom's sister Miss Phyllis Ray and Miss Sue Burkholder of Toronto. They were gowned in lime green brocaded taffeta, and carried mauve gladioli. The attendants' gowns were fashioned similarly to the bride's.

The groomsmen were Mr. William Wright, Port Credit and the ushers, Mr. John Gardhouse, cousin of the bride and Mr. Ralph Tremblis, Port Credit.

A reception for eighty guests was held in the church parlours. The bride's mother received in a dress of wood-violet with grey accessories and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother chose a toast coloured gown with brown accessories and corsage of talisman roses.

For travelling the bride wore a beige and brown gabardine suit with brown accessories which included a fur scarf, the gift of the groom. Her corsage was of talisman roses. The couple left for a motor trip through the eastern states and on their return will make their home on the Mississauga Road near Port Credit.

Guests were present at the wedding from Woodstock, N.B., New York City, Toronto, Orillia, Streetsville, Port Credit, Milton and Georgetown.

Grandson is Married Will Live in Florida

A recent wedding of local interest took place in First Baptist Church, Birmingham, Mich., when Constance Ruth McGirr became the bride of Richard Earle Sheley.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Seley of Birmingham is a grandson of Mrs. J. N. O'Neill of Georgetown and has often been a visitor here. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGirr of Birmingham.

For her marriage Miss McGirr chose a gown of ice blue satin with a Peter Pan collar and buttoned basque bodice. Long tight sleeves ended in points over the hands and the billowed skirt fell into a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of ice blue illusion fell from a Juliet cap which was trimmed with small pearls. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

As ring bearer Ricky Adamy, nephew of the bride, carried a large calla lily with the rings for the double ring ceremony attached to the stamen of the flower.

John Sheley of Hamilton, Ohio, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Curtiss Adamy of Reed City and Fred Mason and Allen Aikens, both of Birmingham.

A reception in the church parlour followed the ceremony. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McGirr chose a ballerina length dress of navy blue embroidered organdy with navy and white accessories. She wore a corsage of rhubrum lilies. The bridegroom's mother selected an aqua sheer with matching hat and white accessories. Her flowers were roses.

After a cruise to Mackinac Island and Duluth the young couple have taken up residence at Vero Beach, Florida.
