Georgetown and Acton Catholics are Confirmed

Several local boys and girls were confirmed at a special service Monday in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Acton. Most Reverend Anthony Jordan, O.M.I., Bishop of Prince Rupert, B.C., administered confirmation for His Excellency Bishop Ryan of Hamilton. The sacrament, as understood by Catholics, is a visible outward sign of the action instituted by Christ for the purpose of imparting sanctifying grace similar to that of the sacrament of baptism.
A canonical reception was held for the bishop in which Rev. Fr. V. J. Moran received His Lordship at the church entrance. He was conducted to the altar where special prayers were offered and Fr. Moran extended a welcome from the members of St. Joseph's and Holy Cross Church.
After questioning the children in catechism, the bishop was assisted in the confirmation sacrament by Rev. Fr. Cyril Sullivan, Brampton, a former college classmate in Edmondton, Rev. Fr. A. Callaghan, Rockwood, Fr. J. F. Ford, Hespeler, Fr. Francis Morgan, Kitchener and the pastor.
The church was most beautifully decorated with red gladioli surrounded by white on the altar. The choir provided special music.
Georgetown children confirmed were Ann Tucker, Douglas Tucker, David Boyle, Francis Hulme, John Hulme, Teresa Becey and Marie Empeyson. Those from Acton were Russell and Wayne Arbie, Francis Heffernan, Leo Marchant, Michael McCristall, Jerome White, William and Colin McColl, Margaret Bradshaw, Jean McCrea, Marilyn Marks, Bernice Sargent and Stella Lewandowski. Nine adults were also in the class.
The bishop went to Milton later in the day for a similar service at Holy Rosary Church there.
