Fun Parade Contestants Receive Lovely Prizes
Two Georgetown businessmen were featured on last night's broadcast of Shrieff's Fun Parade. The broadcast took place in the ballroom of the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, where the Retail Merchants Association were holding their food show and convention.

The program stars Roy Ward Dixon as master of ceremonies with members of the audience participating in the "gags". Mr. Evans was dressed as a lady and sent to sell balloons in the hotel lobby while Mr. Farnell had the job of removing a door from one of the hotel rooms while posing as a carpenter. Both received a number of gifts for their contribution to the program. Mr. Farnell got a wrist watch, Ronson lighter, Thermos water jug, and a chest of silver and Mr. Evans was presented with a Packard electric razor, twelve pairs of socks and a mackinaw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hills also attended the Tuesday sessions on groceries, fruits and vegetables while Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown attended the sessions on meat and fish on Monday.

ST. JOHN'S UNITED CHURCH
"Daily Bread," the fourth in a series of meditations based on the Lord's Prayer was the subject at St. John's United Church on Sunday morning. The lesson was read from Matthew 7:1-12 and the text from Matthew 6:11. The choir under the leadership of Mr. Norman Laird sang the anthem: "Lift Up your heads." The congregations participated in the act of World-Wide Communion by observing the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

The evening message was entitled "Peter's Great Confession" and was in the form of a commentary based on the Scripture found in Matthew 16:13-20. James Evans accompanied by Mrs. Evans sang the solo "I shall not pass again this way."
