ASHGROVE

INTERESTING FEATURES AT W.I. MEETING

What a glorious week-end. The weather was so warm and bright sunshine. The trees are turning into gold and russet colours. The September meeting of the Women's Institute, was held on the 28th at the home of Mrs. Thomas Giffen with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Milton Bird presided. Many helpful suggestions were given for the Roll Call on "How to make farm life more attractive." The motto: "Look to the sky" was well taken by Mrs. Cliff Hunter. Arrangements were made for a sewing class to be held late in October. Mrs. Walter Brownridge gave current events. Everyone enjoyed the reading given by Mrs. Wm. Cromar. An interesting review of the book "Out of the Earth" by Louis Bromfield was given by Mrs. Fred Nurse bringing many helpful suggestions on Agriculture and soil fertility. Lunch was served by the hostess and committee.

Camp Borden Week-End For Lorne Scots Regiment

Members of the Lorne Scots Regiment attended a week-end school conducted by the Royal Canadian School of Infantry at Camp Borden. The regiment was at Camp Borden from Friday night to Sunday afternoon and the men had a chance to fire the most modern weapons including flame throwers.
