No. 4 in a series of historical articles taken from an 1893 edition of the Toronto Daily Mail.

THE ANGLICAN CHURCH

St. George's Episcopal parish was established in 1852. The first church, occupied nearly the same site as the present one. The first incumbent was the Rev. Thomas W. Marsh, who died suddenly on his way to Europe. He was a man much beloved by the people, and was in charge here for four years. He was succeeded in a few months by the Rev. Charles Dade, formerly mathematical professor of Upper Canada College. Then followed in the order named: Rev. J. G. D. McKenzie, Rev. F. A. O'Meara, Rev. Johnston Vicars, Rev. C. C. Johnson, Rev. Arthur Boulbee, Rev. G. B. Cook, Rev. Robert Caswell, and Rev. Graham Adams. The present incumbent, the Rev. Rural Dean Fennell, has been in charge since 1887. It was during the incumbency of the Rev. Arthur Boulbee that the beautiful St. Anne edifice, shown in the illustration, was built. St. George's church occupies a prominent position and commands a favourable view of the village. It is surrounded by extensive grounds, which could be made very attractive; and it is the intention of the congregation and incumbent to beautify them as soon as practicable.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Congregationalism was introduced into this district by the Rev. Stephen King, still living in Toronto. The infant church, with its young minister, met for worship for the first time on the first Sabbath in 1843. Service was held in a school house which stood near where the old saw-mill now stands. After a time services were held in the Wesleyan Methodist church, standing on the site now occupied by the Church of Christ. In 1861 a frame building was erected, known now as the "Old Church", and which in 1877 made way for the present sanctuary, a handsome and substantial stone building which was erected at a cost of some $6,500. It is in the Gothic style of architecture, with a spire and bell. The interior is exceedingly neat and attractive. Almost the whole of the south end is taken up with a very handsome stained glass window in memory of "Maria Barber." At the opposite end is another window, not so large, but equally beautiful. A marble tablet records the fact that the late Mr. Jas. Barber served the church in the office of deacon for the long period of 34 years. The Rev. Mr. Unsworth, now of Toronto, was pastor for nearly 30 years. The present minister is the Rev. D. McCormick, who removed here from Kingston about a year ago.

A FIRST IN ADVERTISING

For the first time in the history of Canadian agriculture, farmers in one specialized branch have banded together for an advertising campaign which will use newspapers, magazines and radio to boost sales of dairy products. It is a new departure for Canadian farmers and a spokesman for the Dairy Farmers of Canada predicts that it is only the beginning. The plan has already been working successfully in the States where several million dollars is allocated annually by dairy farmers for a sales campaign.

One important difference in Canada will be the use of weekly newspapers to carry the sales story. Over half of Canadian weeklies will carry the opening campaign and next year an increased advertising budget will add most of the remaining papers. The advertising is designed to tie in with seasonal surpluses and to push products like butter which, since the introduction of margarine, face strong competition from competing products.

Dairy farmers have pledged a percentage of their market price to support the new plan and have hired a prominent Ontario farmer who has had advertising experience to direct the campaign. Final plans are now being made and Mr. O. W. Shugg, who is in charge of the scheme gave full details of how it will operate to weekly editors who attended the annual CWNA meeting in Quebec City last week.

HARD ON THE EDITOR

The old saying "you can't please everybody" is true, when it comes to the new by-law which provides a one week period between nomination meeting and municipal elections in place of the two week period as formerly.

The fact that nomination meeting has been moved ahead from Friday to Monday night puts the editor on

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Apple Day was a great success. The Cubs and Scouts turned out in good numbers to canvass the town in support of their organization. Scouter Robert J. Smith was in charge of the organizing and with the assistance of ladies of the Scout Auxiliary and members of the Scout Committee and many boys, the day came to a close with a gross receipt of $246.00.

Thank you citizens of Georgetown and vicinity for your encouraging and generous support on Apple Day.

Thank you ladies for the morning and afternoon lunch served to the Scouts and Cubs on Apple Day.

On Thursday, October 26th, The "Leaping Wolf" Cub Pack met with the Scout Troop and Boy Scout Committee for a social evening. The climax of the program was the impressive "going up" ceremony which was held for Cubs Ross McGillivray, Paul MacKenzie, Tom Dobbie, Grant Emmerson, Keith Tracey, Billy Oates, who were received from the Pack into the Troop.

Scouts Bill Hardman and Ted Middleton were presented with their Second class badges.

Scouts Don Livingstone, John Winfield, and Wayne Gribben are assisting Rev. J. M. Smith and Doug Norton in the leadership of the "Little Beavers" Cub Pack.

The Boy Scout Committee met at the home of the Secretary, Vernon McCumber on Thursday evening. Among other items of business plans were laid for another Dad and Lad hockey night at the Maple Leaf Gardens.

A "Shining Bee" was held in St. John's Sunday School room on Friday evening when Parents, Committeemen and Auxiliary members met to polish apples. When a total of 25 bushels had been polished the group enjoyed movies and lunch. Ernest Forgrave on behalf of the Committee paid tribute to the services of Messames Reg Broomhead, R. Hardman and J. M. Smith, who were responsible for the cooking at the Cub Camp. Each of the ladies was presented with a Scout locket as a token of gratitude.

The winners in the apple day basket contest were — 1st prize, Bruce Denham; 2nd prize, Cub Rodney Hyde; 3rd prize, Cub Tom Forgrave. The boys receiving the lucky tokens were Cubs Billy Oates and Charlie Davis. The prize for collecting the most money will go to Cubs Danny Martin and Melvin Broughton.

Our thanks to all who cooperated to make Apple Day a success and a special word of appreciation to advertisers in the Herald for their generous publicity.

the spot for giving adequate pre-election news coverage. For several years we have made a point of not only reporting the nomination meeting in detail but of running a special feature "Meet your Candidates" in which pertinent information about each office seeker is itemized. It will be difficult, though not impossible, for the usual three or four columns to be written and set on the meeting itself, though we have always counted on the week-end to do the job thoroughly and accurately. It may not be possible, however, to give candidates the benefit of a news write-up, inasmuch as the qualification deadline will now be on Tuesday evening. While it is too late to amend the by-law this year, we hope that next year's council may see fit to return to the Friday nomination because of these factors.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

On Tuesday, October 17th an exhibition game of 6-man rugby was played with Alliston at Georgetown. In the first quarter Brethit got a touchdown for Alliston which was unconverted.

In the second quarter Smith of Alliston ran 45 yards after a fumble by Scott. Shortly after this Wright scored another touchdown for Alliston after which their convert again failed. Soon after this Scott ran a 30 yard plunge. Two plays later Hutchinson completed a 40 yard pass to Thompson on a sleeper play. After two more plays Thompson went over for a touchdown, Hutch missed the convert. The only worthwhile note in the third quarter was a 25 yard plunge by Louth. In the last quarter Thompson received a 25 yard pass from Hutchinson and soon after Thompson plunged over for a touchdown. Hutchinson missed the convert, so the final score was 10-10.

On Thursday, October 19th, Georgetown, played 6 man rugby at Milton. Milton kicked off. GHS lost possession of the ball on the Milton 40 yard line. About two plays later Walker ran 50 yards to the Georgetown 2-yard line. Walker plunged for a touchdown. There was no convert. When Milton kicked off again, Gillis made a lovely catch while running across the field.

The only events worth noting in the second quarter were the fumbles. Milton fumbled and lost 18 yards. Georgetown fumbled and lost possession of the ball. Milton fumbled and lost 18 yds. and before long Milton lost 5 more yards on a fumble.

In the third quarter Milton fumbled and through some brilliant running gained 5 yards. McChesney scored for Milton but again there was no convert. In two plays Scott gained 30 yards for GHS. GHS intercepted a pass on a slip play by Georgetown.

In the final quarter the noteworthy plays were a 20 run by McChesney for Milton on an 8 yard loss on a fumble. Milton. The final quarter was short about 5 or 6 minutes due to a misunderstanding. Both Dan and Schenk were recovered sufficiently to play in this game.

The school dance was held according to schedule on the night of Friday the 20th. There was a good crowd with students from Milton and Acton. You know enough to make you want to go your home town! The student council actually made money on dance, about $30 after all expenses if the vice president and treasurer did have to walk home. After this success the Student Council is thinking of having a resometime next month. Let's see if it isn't vetoed.

I heard a good joke the other day, something about Pete and Jack, but I can't remember maybe you had better ask Al G.

FAIR BOARD HOLDS EUCHRE AND DANCE

The fall euchre and dance sponsored by Esqueing Agricultural Society was another successful event. Thirty two tables of euchre players attended last Thursday in the community hall at Stewarttown.

Prizewinners at cards were George C. Brown, Thomas Brodridge, Mrs. Edgar Lyons, and Blow, Acton. After cards, the Hulls' Orchestra played for dancing.
