Quarter-Century Club Dines at Hilltop Lodge

Members of the Quarter-Century Club of Provincial Paper Ltd. gathered at Hilltop Lodge, Erin on Sunday for their third annual turkey dinner and get-together. For the first time since the club was organized no new members qualified for membership this year, but it was announced that next year four would join.

The club president, Hugh Dickie was chairman and announced that election of officers would be held at the fall on the first Sunday in December. He introduced guests from head office, Walter Barber, Dan Fleming, and Dr. G. I. Hoover, all of whom spoke briefly.

Mr. Barber said it was his hope that the club would meet more than once a year and urged the executive to plan at least one other social event when active and associate members could get together. Mr. Fleming said that clubs in various mills operated by the company had a present membership of 256.

Members of the club who attended, all of whom have worked for the company over 25 years, included Jack Fry, Sr., Jim Hill, Alex. Kean, Fred McNally, George Bilck, Walter Louth, John Armstrong, Doald Latimer, Thomas Treanor, George Louth, Albert Carter, Arthur Herbert, Wellington Greenward, Wilfred Gill, George Smith, Henry Preston, Chester Scott, Samuel Harrison, Leonard Marchment, John D. Kelly, Robert Buchanan, Fred McCartney, Hugh Dickie, Bert Weston, Miss Jessie Leavitt and Miss Ann Hickey.

Others attending included office manager, W. C. Reynolds, plant superintendent Ross Duncan, Walter Biehl and Gene Green who took pictures of the gathering for the plant magazine.

Following dinner guests were entertained with musical selections by Joe and Bert Marchment and Miss Leavitt played the piano for a sing-song.

MAKE SCRAP BOOKS FOR AFRICAN CHILDREN

The Bright Star Mission Band held their meeting on Sunday afternoon at the home of Marilyn Wilson with nineteen children attending. A short worship period was led by Mrs. Hector Bird, then scrap books were made for little African children.

Anniversary services in the church on Sunday at eleven a.m. and 8 in the morning. You are invited to come and worship with us. What a wintry week-end! It sure came as a surprise after the lovely days we had through the week.

The Young People held their meeting on Sunday evening at the home of the Wingfield family under the leadership of Mae Wingfield and Herb Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brownridge attended the anniversary services at Ballinacred United Church on Sunday.

Miss Beulah Matthews and Mrs. A. E. Chalker were week-end guests in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simmonds and Mrs. T. A. Laughlin.
