Church Group Plans Three Act Comic Play

Advance reports about a three-act play "The Absent Minded Professor" should assure the 50-50 Club of St. John's Church a full house when they present the play in the auditorium a week from Friday.

The play is a comedy based on the story of a statue come to life. Professor, thieves, college folk and rube, constable Hiram Hummel all get a bit confused but the professor is the hero in the end.

Besides providing merriment the 50-50 Club has the worthwhile aim of making money to pay for the new curtains on the stage of the auditorium. They plan to take the show to neighbouring centres including Ballinfad, Norval and Rockwood.

Leading roles in the play are taken by Graham Farnell as the professor, Ernest Hyde and Vern McCumber as two crooks, James Evans as Constable Hummel and Mrs. Robert Wyatt as Imogene Gene, who longs to be an actress.

The cast also included Mrs. Vern McCumber as the professor's wife, Harvey Lee as Biff Terry, football player; George Taylor as a student; Mrs. Al Zeraviev as Biff's fiancée; Mrs. Alan Prouse as the professor's sister-in-law; Mrs. Ern Hyde as a reporter; and Mrs. Harvey Lee as her friend.

AFRICAN MISSION WORK SHOWN IN SLIDE TALK

"The Unpardonable Sin" was the subject of the sermon at St. John's on Sunday morning. The lesson was read from Mark 3: 22-29. The choir under the direction of Mr. Laird sang the anthem "Gentle, Holy Saviour" and the Junior Choir sang a children's hymn.

The evening service was held in the Memorial Hall and Rev. J. M. Smith told something of the work of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Strangway medical missionaries in Chemsamba, Angola, Africa. The talk was illustrated by means of forty descriptive pictures. Mrs. James Evans accompanied the congregational singing at the piano.

Men of the congregation were requested to keep the evening of Dec. 6th open for a dinner when Alex Reid of Guelph will be the entertainer. Alex Reid was popular on his last visit to Georgetown when he attended the Sunday School garden party.
