Hockey Schedule Arranged FOUR DECEMBER HOME GAMES

Secretaries of the six Intermediate A hockey clubs in this district met at Georgetown Arena last Thursday to arrange a schedule for the first half of the season. Norman Hill, secretary of the local club, is convener of the group which includes Georgetown Raiders, New Toronto Strangers, Oakville Legion, Milton, Dundas and Burlington. Georgetown played their first home game on Monday with Milton. Further home games are scheduled on December 5th with New Toronto, on December 8th with Dundas, on December 15th with Burlington, and on December 27th with Oakville.

Later in the season the group representatives will meet again to arrange the second half of the schedule. Hockey fans will see many new faces this year on the teams. Burlington, Dundas and New Toronto have entered teams for the first time and will provide completely new competition. Milton and Oakville have been grouped in Intermediate B before but both teams have new line-ups. Missing are Agton Tanners, whose teams always gave Georgetown a good battle, and who could always be counted on to pack the house when they played on Georgetown ice.

Criticizes Hockey Club For Schedule Ball-up

Dear Editor: One of the functions of sport is to create good will through wholesome fun and recreation. Any team that cannot build this good will has missed the real purpose for which it was formed. It necessarily follows that if a club loses this good-will it must suffer financially through lack of patrons at their games. I write you, Mr. Editor, hoping that the officers and members of the Intermediate A Club will read and take note, by any means, of their selfishness towards the Industrial Hockey League must not necessarily damage the good will among many decent Intermediate supporters. The underhanded way they scheduled their game with Milton on Monday, knowing it was industrial hockey night at the arena, and without so much as even consulting the Recreation Commission, arena board or Jack Wilson, cannot but cause them ill. I hope that such inconsideration will never happen again. In closing, I wish to thank the industrial team and our patrons for being such good sports in agreeing to our proposal of moving to Tuesday night this week. Leonard Self, Recreational Director
