'Round Robb's...

with Sally and Sam

"What's all this talk about Christmas shopping problems" says Sam ... and he means it.

Sam is one of those peopled characters who always has trouble when it comes to buying the little woman that certain gift. He worries and sweats and knashes his teeth, and usually ends up pinning a ten-spot on the tree with a note "Buy something you want, dear!" Did we say "is" "Was" we meant! For on a shopping trip in Robb's Sam discovered FABERGE.

It takes a man to appreciate allure, and this Robb "exclusive" has it to spare with four exciting fragrances — Aphrodite, Woodhug, Tigress and the new Act IV (We previewed that when FABERGE opened their new factory on the lakeshore a few weeks ago.)

The Duet Ensemble will look good tucked in any Christmas stocking. Fabergette perfume is contained in a new non-spill vial. Touch it to the skin and the perfume distills from four minute holes in the vial top. Cologne and perfume together cost $4.50, Fabergette alone is $3.00.

There are many other FABERGE products. Perfums in glass stopper bottles at $8.50 ... a variety of colognes starting at $1.50.

Sally says sometimes she wishes she didn't shop at Robb's

It would have been all right if she had decided on the KODAK TOURIST CAMERA which Robb's is featuring for Christmas. One of the many types of cameras, priced from $3.10 to $45.00 the TOURIST sell for $26.00.

But trust a woman, she had to see everything, and now she's torn between this and the PHILISHAVE which should get those stray whiskers which Sam says his old faithful just won't eliminate.

The TOURIST is really a honey. Sam has always been bothered on a vacation trip with packing problems and this folding model with eye-level view finder is the answer. It takes regular 35mm film and takes pictures that Sam can only dream about now.

But then, there's the PHILISHAVE. Philip's new rotary electric razor. Sally has noticed it advertised in Maclean's and Time and it piqued her curiosity, but it never occurred to her that Robb's would have them right here in town.

The PHILISHAVE is shaped to fit the hand and the rotary action just makes it impossible for any whisker, long or short, to escape. The most attractive feature is that it sells for $21.50, lower than any other electric shaver on the market.

If you're one of those unfortunate fellows like Sam who takes hours to fill a fountain pen, Robb's have the answer.

SHEAFFER'S have evolved a one-plunge pen and borrowed a football term to describe it — "Touchdown" fill. Sam couldn't believe his eyes when he saw it work. Press the plunger down once while you hold it in the ink bottle and there you are. Seems almost too easy.

This is a double-barrelled gift idea for SHEAFFER has beautiful styles for both men and ladies. Maroon, green, black, blue and brown are the colours. Price varies from $4.75 to $21.00 with matching pencils, if you wish, priced from $4.00 to $7.75.

Another SHEAFFER feature — the patented spring clip which fits on the finest nylon shirt or the heaviest wool jacket.

What will they think of next!

Sam will have to hurry for this one if he changes his mind about Faberge for there are only a few in stock.

It's a MAX FACTOR MAKE-UP KIT designed so that when the make-up is all used up, the two parts of the container come apart to form two attractive trays.

This $11.25 Christmas honey has powder, pancake make-up, lipstick, rouge, skin freshener and cologne. What more could a lady ask!

Sally, Jr., usually "gets in her hair" when Sally takes a few minutes from housework to spruce up for a trip downtown. The junior miss, you see, always wonders what's so fascinating in the hand mirror into which Sally is gazing. It usually ends up with Sally, Jr. perched on her knee and mama getting the odd peek over a tousle of baby curls.

A JEWELLITE BRUSH, COMB AND MIRROR SET at Robb's may solve this problem. This one has a twin mirror, one on each side. Now Sally can primp to her heart's content, while the boss of the house amuses herself looking in the other side.

The sets come in crystal, ruby and sapphire, $7.95 to $10.95.

An extra feature is that any of the three pieces is replaceable, so one breakage doesn't ruin the set.
