SCOUT NEWS

Hockey tickets for the Cub-Scout trip to Maple Leaf Gardens on Saturday, December 30 will be available Thursday night at the Scout meeting at 7 o'clock from Scouter R. J. Smith. All Cubs and Scouts wishing to attend the game are urged to make arrangements at that time since there is only a limited number of tickets.

Unfortunately it looks like our quota of tickets will only permit enough adults to act as leaders.

Scouters R. J. Smith and S. Young conducted the regular troop meeting on Thursday night.

Thanks to Bob Jones for his help in providing a truck to pick up paper last Saturday. Thanks too, to the few Scouts who were delegated to the job.

Regular Pack meetings of the Little Beavers and Leaping Wolves were held on Friday and Wednesday respectively. There will be no meeting of the Little Beavers this Friday.

Cubs R. Hyde, T. Forgrave, C. Davies, M. Broughton, and Scouts D. Martin, B. Denham and B. Oates have been presented with compasses for their fine effort on Apple Day.

The Cubs still have a number of boxes of Christmas cards for sale. A phone call to 645W will have a box delivered to you.

Both Cub Packs will meet at the Church on Wednesday, December 27th at 1:30 p.m. Bring weiners and rolls for yourself. Also a bottle of pop. It's a hike, Cubs.

Citizens are requested to save their waste paper for the Boy Scout collection early in the New Year—Please!!!

Christmas Program as Women's Institute Meets

The December Women's Institute meeting was held on December 12th at the home of Mrs. Fred Nurse with 31 members and two visitors present. The president, Mrs. Milton Bird opened with the ode and repeating the Institute creed. Roll Call was answered by singing a line of a favourite carol. It was moved that the Institute send $5.50 to the Neighbourhood Workers Association, also that they cater to the Fair Board banquet in January. Mrs. Hector Bird had charge of the programme. Mrs. Robt. Cunningham gave the motto "Give joy away and it will come back to you." Current events were given by Mrs. Bruce Bridgen. An interesting demonstration on home made Christmas decorations was given by Mrs. W. Bird, Mrs. Vern Archer and Mrs. W. Stringer. This was followed by carol singing. Mrs. T. Giffen gave a reading. An exchange of Christmas gifts and lunch closed the afternoon.

A capacity crowd of friends and neighbours gathered in the school house for the annual Christmas concert on Friday evening. All numbers showed careful preparation and were well put on. The closing number, a pageant, entitled "The Will of the Star" brought the real meaning of Christmas. Mr. Charles Austin who acted as chairman for the evening expressed the appreciation of all to Miss Kean for her splendid work. Jolly Santa Claus arrived and distributed the gifts to an eager and excited group of children.

Merry Christmas, everybody. And may peace and good-will reign in your heart long after this festive season.

A beautiful White Gift Service was held on Sunday morning in the church when the S.S. children brought their White Gifts and placed them in a large white basket. These gifts are being taken to the Church of All Nations in Hamilton and distributed where they are needed so badly.

WINS QUILT MADE BY KNOX LADIES

Peggy Ann McIniven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McIniven won a quilt which was raffled last week by members of the Main Circle of Knox Church W.A. Each year the circle members hand quilt an article for sale and Peggy Ann helped them raise funds by selling a large number of tickets herself.

Social Evening Honours Mr. and Mrs. McMenemy

Wednesday evening a presentation was held in the hall for Mr. and Mrs. Bert McMenemy a bride and groom of early December. Progressive euchre was played during the early party of the evening, after which Mr. John Cole acting as master of ceremonies called on the newlyweds to come forward. Mrs. Sandy McKay read an address of congratulation and best wishes for their future and Mrs. D. McKechnie on behalf of the community presented them with a gift of a purse. Mr. McMenemy then thanked the gathering for their kindness in remembering them with the generous gift. Lunch was served and dancing was enjoyed to the music of Mr. C. Varey accompanied by Mrs. M. McLaughlin.

The Sunday School held their Christmas concert in the church on Friday. An enjoyable program was given by the children and older members. There was a splendid attendance with Mr. W. Gibb in charge of proceedings.

During this busy, festive season, we would like to take time out to say "thank you" for your friendship and patronage in the past year and to wish you a very
