Christmas morn (about

7 a.m.?) — shake hands and wish you the compliments of the season, but with so many customers and a few hundred other friends in the district, spread over many miles of our Great Province, this is impossible, so will you please accept this long distance, but sincere wish, that you and your Dear Ones will have a very Happy Christmas season, and that you will not have more than your share of troubles during the coming year.

SPORTSMANSHIP IN CANADA UNLIMITED

There's a roar as the puck bounces crazily away from the defending net. Gleaming skates flash and the boards echo to the thump of hard sticks and hurtling blades. Every moment brings its own thrill as the home team's forwards attack and the ... and once again Canada thrills to the excitement of another hockey season. Each year on tiny ponds and in great modern arenas, hockey holds Canada in its spell.

Hockey's spirit of joyous exciting competition is traditional in Canada. It's this spirit — the good sportsmanship it develops, that keep your opportunities for work and play in Canada unlimited.
