Community Farewell Minister to Midland

A community farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Self was held in St. Paul's parish hall on Friday when friends from the district gathered to wish them well prior to their departure for Midland.

Walter Fiddler acted as chairman and read an address expressing the good wishes of the Norval people and voicing the regret at the vacancy in the recreational field which would be hard to fill. A purse from the community was presented by Bill Laidlaw and brief speeches were made by H. Craig Reid, George C. Brown, Stan Hall, MPP, Frank Petch and Frank Fendley.

A second presentation of a cheque was made to Mr. Self by Ron McLean and Peter Pomeroy representing the Pee Wee hockey team and Mr. A. M. Baxter acting for Georgetown Recreation Commission presented him with a gift also while Mrs. Joe Emmerson gave Mrs. Self a bouquet of flowers. Alex MacLaren, GRC chairman, read an address for that organization.

Earlier in the evening, Frank Petch representing Georgetown council and H. Craig Reid representing Esquesing, who had provided the awards for the Ontario championship juvenile lacrosse team presented the cup, windbreakers and crests. Arnold Hazell received the cup as team captain. Team members are David Barber, Joe Louth, Bill Hewitt, Bert Carey, Bud Haines, Terry Bludd, George Grasby, Walter Alexander, Don Jarvie, Dale Sedore, Sho Teramoto, Peter Fendley, Ken Richardson, Jamie Cunningham, C. Judge, Murray Judge, Bill Watson, Gerry Fendley and Arnold Hazel.

After lunch there was dancing to Doris Hulls' Orchestra.

Turkeys, Chickens For Bowling Club Winners

In the second holiday bowling tournament at the Lucky Strike, Everett Wilson bowled 328 and Kay Tyers 252 and each won a turkey for their high score.

There was keen competition for the two chickens offered as hidden score prizes. Lena Palmer, Mrs. Herb Hancock, Mrs. Bill Hewitt and Mrs. Ray Addy all had 187 and Mrs. Addy won the chicken in a bowl-off. Six men tied for the 187 hidden score, Hugh Dickie, Al Zeravlev, Cam Sinclair, Maurice Herbert, Jim Zilio and George Lowin. Jim Zilio was the final winner.

MACKENZIE NEWS

We are sorry to disappoint a number of our customers in not supplying them with our usual calendar. Our arithmetic was poor and we didn't allow sufficiently for the increased homes in the Georgetown and Acton areas. So if you were towards the end of the list and our calendars were all gone, that accounts for the lack. We'll try to arrange it better in 1951.

See you at the hockey game, if we don't fall asleep in our chair.

Three Close Games Industrial Hockey

Resuming their games in the industrial hockey league last night, some close scores were registered. Norval beat Businessmen 3-1, Provincial and Smith & Stone played a 2-all tie and Baxter Lab and Alliance also tied 4-all.

CORRECTION

In an account of Esquesing nomination meeting in last week's Herald it was incorrectly stated that Lt.-Col. Gordon Brown said eight of the eleven central high school members favour a central school at Speyside. This should have read "Silvercreek."

Officers and Sergeants Entertain at New Year's

The officers' and sergeants' messes at Brampton armories held their traditional New Year's receptions on Monday and several from town attended this annual Lorne Scots event. Lt.-Col. John R. Barber, Officer Commanding the regiment was host at the officers' reception.
