S. S. Teachers Meet Study Teaching Methods

A district meeting of United Church Sunday School teachers was held in St. John's United Church on Monday evening under the direction of Halton Presbytery Christian Education Committee. Rev. J. Blair of Milton by means of a Flip-Chart addressed the group on the theme: "The teacher and his task." Rev. J. M. Smith outlined methods, approaches and class procedures in teaching, and emphasized the importance of the pupil-teacher relationship. Rev. F. Curran of Aston demonstrated the use of a film strip and 200 slide projector by showing a number of strips of slides and projector operation and use.

LIONS' FORMAL FRIDAY IN THE ROSE ROOM

The spirit of St. Patrick takes over the Rose Room Friday for a popular annual event, the Lions' "Formal" St. Patrick's Day. The Lions' "Formal" St. Patrick's Day has promised something special in the decorations and the Modern Amos will play. Refreshments will again be served to the guests.

Legion Notes

LAST SUNDAY the executive and president held a dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCartney's. All of the boys seemed to enjoy it thoroughly, and hope it becomes a regular affair each year. This was inaugurated last April, and the one was also held at the McCartneys.

INCIDENTALLY, "Dutch" has a new nickname now, they call him "Whisperer" because he has a bad case of laryngitis and can't talk. We know it's serious, Dutch, but it's still funny, too.

A NUMBER OF the Woman's Auxiliary were entertained at the

MACKENZIE NEWS

We won't fly our flag at half mast until after Wednesday night at least for we know the boys of our hockey team will be in there fighting.

New chromium doors and drawer pulls, a new arborite top and a new coat of paint can do wonders for your present cupboards and kitchen too. The cost is modest at 35c per pull and 60c per square foot for the arborite.
