PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

School Contributes to March of Dimes Campaign
There was a good response to the 'March of Dimes' campaign. A total of $39.38 was contributed to help crippled children attain health and happiness. Kindergarten Primary children were not asked for a donation, but following is a list of amounts donated by each class. Grades 1, 2, 3, $6.54; Grade 4, $4.83; Grade 5, $5.17; Grade 6, $4.32; Grade 7, $3.80; Grade 8, $3.05; K.P., 10c; Grade 8, $4.70, making a total of $39.38.

On Monday evening a preview of junior play was shown to the junior teachers. 'Lapp Life' is a Social Studies topic and 'Springtime on the Farm' sums up a science unit.

Absence through illness has been mounting rapidly throughout the school during March.

School closes for Easter vacation, Thursday night, March 22nd, and reopens Monday, April 2nd. It is hoped that attendance will be back to normal for the last lap of the school term.

Miss Beatrice Hume is suffering this week from an attack of influenza. During her absence her class is being conducted by Miss Rowena Stull.

Explorers Easter Tea Held at St John's Church

The Explorers group at St. John's United Church held an Easter tea Saturday afternoon in the church hall, which was decorated in green and yellow.

The leaders prepared the lunch in the kitchen, and the girls served, each dressed in her smart uniform of navy pleated skirt, white middie and red tie. Crepe paper aprons some green and some yellow, made by the girls at their last meeting completed their costume.

The tea tables, arranged in a circle were gay with flowers and Easter serviettes. Small potted plants, Easter cards and a few articles made by the girls were placed on a side table for sale. Money made from the tea will be used to buy stars, emblems and pins.
