NORVAL
Ruddell, Currie New Presidents of Juniors
 Isabel Currie and Howson Ruddell were elected as the new presidents of the Norval Junior Institute and Junior Farmers respectively at the Annual Meeting held in the home of Duncan Robinson, on Tuesday evening of last week. Agricultural Representative J. E. Whitlock took charge of the election of the officers for the Junior Farmers and also gave an illustrated address based on the Halton Bus Trip to Ohio.
 Robt. Cooper, of Brampton, who has accompanied nine plane shipments of livestock to South America addressed the joint group. His address based on some of the high lights of these trips was intensely interesting.
 The election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows:
Junior Farmers:
 President, Howson Ruddell; Vice president, Don Milton; Secretary, Duncan Robinson; Treasurer, John Currie; Directors, Fraser McNabb, Elwood Carney, Frank Wilson, Cliff McDougald and Earl Wilson.
Junior Institute:
 President Isabel Currie; Vice President, Eleanor Stark; Directors, Bernice Wilson, Margaret Milton and Jessie Wingfield.
