Chatting . . . With M.H.B.

WE CAN'T THINK of a happier occasion on which to extend congratulations than a Golden Wedding Anniversary — and sincere congratulations from us and all their friends in town go to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barber who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on April 10th . . .

On that day, Mr. and Mrs. Barber's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barber, entertained them to dinner in Toronto, and afterwards a party was held for them at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Morley Pearce, Willowdale . . .

(Pat) Patterson and family, who moved last week to a farm near Norval. We said new "in a sense" because Mr. Patterson is an OHA referee and often referees hockey games in Georgetown. The Patterson family moved here from the Kingsway, Toronto. Mr. Patterson is District Sales Manager for Swift (Canadian) Limited. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson have two children, Sylvia who is finishing her school term at St. Joseph's Islington and will attend Georgetown High School next fall; and son Bill, who is attending Norval Public School . . .

THEN ON SUNDAY afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barber, King Street, were host at a family gathering to honour Mr. and Mrs. Barber on their Anniversary. Most of the immediate family were able to be present, and included: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. (son Eric) Barber, and their family; Mr. and Mrs. L. Soskin, Nancy, and Eric Jr., all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. M. Pearce (daughter Natalie), Marilyn and Pamela; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Barber (son Bob); Mr. and Mrs. George Barber (son George); Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barber (son Paul); Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Barber (son Keith) and children Mary, Heather, and Phyllis; Mr. Barber's brother, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. J. R. Barber; and Mrs. Marion Barber. Mr. and Mrs. Barber's eldest son Jack is married and living in Australia. They have one daughter Joan, now married. Another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barber and daughter Virginia live in New York City . . .

The Pattersons purchased their farm from James D. Emslie, who in turn bought Mr. Mann's farm at the Acton crossroad . . .

MR. AND MRS. A. Court and family moved last week from Victoria Street, to an apartment in Mrs. Mickus' home on Queen Street. Mr. and Mrs. Court came to Georgetown from Brampton about a year ago. Mr. Court is employed at Alliance Paper Mills . . . Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ginsberg (the former Pearl Saxe) are home from their Mediterranean cruise. It was quite a wonderful trip, with frequent stop-overs at points of interest in countries which border the Sea. Among the countries they visited were Italy, Egypt and Israel. They also sailed up the Black Sea and could see the shores of Russia in the distance . . .

MR. AND MRS. E. W. Binkley attended the annual banquet of the Advertising and Sales Club of Toronto held in the Royal York Hotel last Friday evening. One of the entertainment features of the event was a preview of Canadian Television . . . It was the first "live" television show ever televised in Toronto and featured "Lonesome Gal" who is heard on the radio every night . . .

TALKING WITH Mrs. A. E. Dawson on Friday, she asked us if anyone had reported or asked about a strange phenomenon she and her daughter Darryl (Mrs. Phil Howard) saw in the sky about 3 a.m. Friday morning. Nobody had phoned in about it, and we didn't see anything in the Toronto papers which might have explained it. So we were passing the information on to our readers in the hope that they might assuage our curiosity, as well as Mrs. Dawson's. What the Dawson's heard and saw, was a tremendously loud explosive sound somewhat resembling a severe thunderclap, followed by white flashes which lit up the sky in the direction of Toronto. The whole thing lasted about thirty seconds, during which time a night light which had been left burning in the house flickered on and off a couple of times. There were no clouds in the sky and the stars were shining brightly. So that would seem to disprove a thunder and lightning theory. Anyone know what it was . . .

The tea table at Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Barber's home looked very lovely laid with a Venetian cut-work linen table cloth, lighted candles and centred with daffodils. The daughters-in-law assisted with the tea. As a tribute to the happy occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Barber received a great many flowers and gifts . . . A happy family coincidence is to be found in the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Barber's first great-grandson was born on the 10th of April — the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Barber (Jr.) Mr. and Mrs. George Barber's little daughter is the only other great-grandchild . . .

MR. AND MRS. C. H. Barber have been living in Georgetown for the past seventeen years, after moving here from Cornwall, where they were married fifty years ago, in Trinity Church before her marriage Mrs. Barber was Ethel Weagant, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Weagant, descendants of one of Cornwall's oldest and best-known families . . .

MR. BARBER, as most Georgetown people know, is the son of the late Col. and Mrs. John R. Barber, owner of the town's original paper mill. It was Mr. Barber's grandfather who originally built and established the "Lower Paper Mill." The old Barber home called "Berwick Hall" is now owned by W. F. Bradley. The late Col. John R. Barber was also president of the Toronto Paper Company in Cornwall, and it was while Mr. C. H. Barber was assisting his father in his business at Cornwall that he met his future wife, who was born and brought up there . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Barber are quite justifiably proud of their family which comprises seven sons, one daughter, seventeen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren . . .

ONE OF THE apartments at Berwick Hall is now occupied by newcomers to town, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Lee, who formerly lived at Bronte. Mr. Lee is the District Representative for Beatty Bros., Ltd. . . . Also newcomers, in a sense, to this district, are Mr. and Mrs. C. S.
