Was Active in Many Ladies' Organizations

A life-long resident of Georgetown and prominent in local ladies' organizations, Mrs. Fred Braisby died suddenly at her home on Caroline Street last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Braisby was born in Georgetown 63 years ago and was the former Daisy Gertrude Mason, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Mason.

A member of the Baptist Church, the WMS and Women's Society, she had also been an active member of the Loyal True Blue Lodge, in which she was a past W.M. and past D.W.M. She was past president and a former zone representative of the Ladies Auxiliary, Canadian Legion. She was also an active member and past president of the Local Council of Women.

Mrs. Braisby is survived by her husband; three children Mrs. Charles L. Hall (Margaret) Little Britain, William G. Braisby, Georgetown and Mrs. Robert Harris (Daisy), Stewarttown and six grandchildren.

The funeral service on Saturday was conducted at her late residence by Rev. E. G. Baxter of Port Colborne, a former minister here. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were John Armstrong, Jr., William Merritt, Arthur Reeve, Richard Prust, Joseph Gibbons and J. Sanialo of Montreal.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion conducted their graveside service and also acted as flower bearers for the many beautiful floral tributes.

REPORT GOOD RETURNS FROM PLAY, BAKE SALE

St. John's Guild held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Cecil Smith. The treasurers report showed very successful returns for the play, baking sale and sale of quilt. Mrs. John Murray will be hostess at the next meeting.

Community sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. R. Harris in the death last Wednesday of Mrs. Harris' mother, Mrs. Fred Braisby.

Happy birthday wishes to Bette Mae Mileham who will be 5 on Friday of this week. Happy birthday to Peter Canham for Thursday this week. Also best wishes for a happy birthday to Danny Smith Tuesday of next week. Danny will be nine years old.

Mary Lawson chose the hymn and assisted with the worship service at the Junior W.A. meeting held last Monday at Mrs. Baily's home. Quilt blocks were made at the busy period.

The W.A. meeting was held at Mrs. C. Smith's home on Thursday afternoon.

Fill up a couple of pails of water Saturday night. Water is being shut off Sunday morning while the town men make some repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Chester and Mr. and Mrs. Jack May were in Rochester, N.Y., on Friday attending the wedding of Mrs. Chester's niece, Eileen Gertrude Ray, whose marriage to Raymond DeVries took place in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. A reception followed at the Sheraton Hotel, Rochester.

PEANUT SALE LIONS ACTIVITY THIS MONTH

A report on peanut sales was the main item of business at the Lions Club dinner meeting last week at the McGibbon House. Ray Whitmee, 1st vice president was in the chair and Don Barrager reported that fifty more cases of cocktail tins had been ordered for sale by the club, making a total of 100 cases to sell. The chairman urged members to get out and sell and to organize door-to-door selling and street sales. The club receives 22¢ on each tin sold and hopes to realize several hundred dollars from this and the Peanut Day in May.

Mr. Douglas Fleming of Dundas, a candidate for Deputy District Governor, visited the club and spoke briefly. Members planned to attend the charter night of the new Erin club in a body this week.

Five Join Lodge Dep. Master Visits

Stewart Lockie, of Milton, paid his official visit to Orion Oddfellows Lodge as DDGM on Monday.

A special feature of lodge was the conferring of the initiatory degree on five new candidates by the degree team, in charge of Gordon Spence. New candidates were Herb Hughes, Herb Arnold, Gordon King, Orval Rayner and Roderick King.

Raise $300 in Kentner Benefit Hockey Game

Teams Tied in Hockey Challenge Series

A benefit hockey game for the family of Jack Kentner, Milton hockey star who was killed in a motor accident realized over $300 at the arena on Friday.

Milton Co-ops and Georgetown Raiders renewed their rivalry and Georgetown came out best in a 10-6 score. Mayor Harold Cleave dropped the puck in the opening ceremonies after one minute's silence had been observed. Georgetown was bolstered with Joe Schertzl, American League defence star home at Norval after his season with Hershey Bears.

Last night the first of a challenge series between the two teams was played here. Two more games are scheduled, Friday in Milton and on Monday at Georgetown. Total goals scored in the three games will determine the winner. Georgetown came from behind last night with two goals in the final minutes to tie the score 7-7.

Ionic Choir Here For Monday Concert

A fine musical program was presented in St. John's Memorial Hall Monday by the Ionic Male Choir from Brampton under the leadership of Thelma Capps Morrison.

The concert, originally scheduled for an earlier date was postponed due to the death of Mrs. Morrison's father, W. Ed Capps, widely known music teacher who was the founder of the choir and led it for several years.

The concert had particular local interest because the accompanist, Kenneth R. Harrison is a Georgetown man, and the guest soloist, Miss Marion Hepburn is a local girl who teaches music in both Georgetown schools. Mrs. Morrison, in her remarks, paid tribute to their musical ability.

Miss Hepburn sang two groups of numbers which included "Italian Street Song," "Carissima" and "Just a Wearying for You." Morley Mallet and Edwin Rowlands were soloists with the choir.

Water Off Sunday For Main Hook-up

All town water will be shut off Sunday morning at seven in the morning for an indefinite period.

The shut-off is caused by work on the new water system to the College View district, it being necessary to tie in the new 8 inch transit main at Ewing and Guelph Sts.

This will be the commencement of work which will result in a new service designed to adequately serve that part of town and provide a better fire protection for Georgetown's three main industrial plants, Smith & Stone, Alliance Paper Mills and Provincial Paper. The new main will be laid down Ewing St., across the creek and along Elm St.

LADY BOWLERS

GO-GETTERS TOP BOWLING LEAGUE

In the ladies' afternoon bowling league at the Lucky Strike, top place for the season was taken by the Go-Getters, captained by Mrs. Robert Harris. The Red Feathers under captain Mrs. George Greenward were second and Seven Jets, Mrs. Ace Bailey, captain, third. Four weeks of playoffs are now in progress.

Mrs. Herb Hancock had season's high average of 188, Mrs. Robert Harris high triple of 798 and Mrs. Claude Reid, high single of 315.

During the final week of the season's bowling, high triples were Mrs. Cyril Brandford 627, Mrs. Don Arthurs 618 and Mrs. Hancock 604. High singles, Mrs. Arthurs 274, Mrs. Reid 264 and Mrs. Brandford 240.

EXPLORERS CAMP AT BOLTON THIS SUMMER

Plans are being made by the Explorers' group at St. John's Church to attend camp at Bolton for a few days in July.

Mrs. Frank Whitmee's group won the gold star for having the most points for the month of March. The girls are at present learning the Explorer prayer which will be said at the beginning of each meeting.

At the last meeting, the members coloured the emblems on their purpose cards.

The Purpose is:
To look to the light,
To do with my might,
What is good in God's sight.
To follow Christ, the King.

Explorers Paulene Watson and Barbara Alcott were chosen to colour the emblem on the large card which will be placed in the Memorial Hall.

CHOIR AND QUARTETTE RECITAL AT KNOX CHURCH

The Girls' High School choir and Georgetown String Quartette presented a recital Sunday evening in Knox Presbyterian Church.

It was one of a series of recitals, which include later engagements at Glen, Williams and Churchhill. The girls wore their new choir gowns for the first time.

Limehouse Hall Full For Ag. Society Evening

Limehouse Hall was well filled Friday night for an interesting program presented by Esqueusing Agricultural Society to bolster interest in the work of the society.

President Nelson Robinson was chairman for a program which included an illustrated lecture on flower and vegetable arranging for show purposes by John F. Clark and a talk on beaver oats, which the society is promoting as a commercial feature for the 1951 fair, by F. A. Lashley of the Department of Agriculture.

Joe Lyons of Hornby entertained with recitations and Marilyn South and Anna Spitzer sang. Mrs. Jack Roughley and Miss Jean Ruddell accompanying them. Mrs. Roughley also played piano solos.

Refreshments were served after the speakers had been thanked by Miss Charlotte McCullough.

Unknown Friend Party For Rebekah Lodge

On Tuesday evening, April 17, about 100 members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge assembled at the Lodge Room for their annual Unknown Friend party.

They sat down to a delicious salad plate supper, convened by the four group leaders. The tables were prettily decorated in the lodge colours of pink and green with gold paper baskets, filled with coloured pussy willows. Chinese lanterns hung from the ceiling.

Many mysterious and gaily wrapped parcels acted as place cards for each member, also a paper hat made by each one for their unknown friend. These hats were later judged, the winners being: the most original hat, worn by Sister Pearl Lilloco and made by Sister Aileen Smith. Comic hat worn by Sister Lorene Sanford and made by Sister Thelma Wilson. The most practical hat, worn by Sister Vivian Arnold and made by Sister Anne Collins.

Before the parcels were opened, Sister Gertrude McBride, the Noble Grand acted as toastmaster. The first toast was to the King, with all standing to sing God Save the King. The toast to the Lodge proposed by Sister Nora Tuck and responded to by Sister Anne Collins. The Unknown Friend proposed by Sister Anne Riddall and responded to by Sister Edna Cleave.

After opening the parcels new names were drawn for another year and all adjourned to the Lodge room for a short Lodge meeting at the conclusion of which there was an hour of entertainment convened by Sister Edith Kettner, and consisted of a Hill Billy Band, and three short humorous skits, which kept the crowd well amused.

A pleasant evening was brought to a close with a sing-song.

Don't forget, we miss an hour's sleep Saturday. The town will be on fast time on Sunday.

Water Shut-Off

Sunday, April 29th

The water will be shut off in Georgetown at 7.00 a.m. D.S.T.

This will affect the whole town.

E. T. Hyde, Town Foreman.
