GLEN WILLIAMS
Broken Bone Dashes Hopes for Lacrosse
A promising lacrosse star, who was looking forward to a try-out with Brampton Excelsiors this season, had his hopes dashed when he broke a bone in his right hand at hockey practice. Johnny Haines was expecting to try out with Brampton, along with Junior Beaumont and Bill Louth, all of whom have been playing lacrosse at Norval for the past few seasons. Johnny will have a cast on his hand until August.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagstaffe and Danny spent Sunday at Brockville, with Mr. and Mrs. Alf Allen, Eileen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen, started work Monday at Mr. Kenneth M. Langdon's law office in town.

This Sunday, worshippers of the Glen United Church will celebrate their 111th anniversary with special morning and evening services. The church choir will take part in the morning service and Georgetown High School girls' choir will present a recital as part of the evening service. Rev. D. J. M. Buttars of Inglewood will preach that day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Everson and Wayne of Toronto were weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Allen. Recent visitors with the Allens included her brother, Mr. G. Masales and his wife of St. Catharines. Mr. Masales raises canaries and brought a lovely singer to his sister as a gift.

The sympathy of friends goes to James Gambell, whose father John A. Gambell died in Brampton on Sunday.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford for a few days are her brother, Jimmy and Mrs. Alderson of Everett.

Friends of Ed Martin will be sorry to hear of his sudden illness. He is in Toronto Western Hospital and hopes to be home in a week or two.

Jack Fry, Jr. of Hamilton visited his parents here on the week-end Mrs. Fry returned with him after a visit here.

Spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Crawford, Jr. were her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson, Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fox, Landa and Dennis of St. Catharines. Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Crawford are sisters.

Commercial Teacher has New Napanee Position
Miss Edith Allison has resigned from Georgetown High School staff to accept a position at Napanee High School. Miss Allison has been a commercial teacher in Georgetown since the commercial special course was introduced three years ago.

Her position at the school will be filled by Mr. Blue Armstrong, who is graduating this year from the Ontario College of Education. Mr. Armstrong, a native of Dayton, whose parents now live in Guelph, graduated from the University of Toronto after serving in the army during the war. He is married and the father of two children.

REGULAR SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH
Regular morning worship was conducted in St. John's on Sunday by Rev. John M. Smith, whose message was entitled "The Pure in Heart Shall See God". The choir sang the anthem "O Worship the King" and a solo "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" was sung by Ruth Evans.

The evening meditation was based on the text "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the Children of God".

Circuit Servant Visits Local Jehovah Witnesses
As a climax to the semi-annual visit of the circuit servant, Mr. Alex Didier, an informal get-together was held after the regular lecture and Bible study of the servants and friends of Georgetown Company of Jehovah's Witnesses at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cordaro.

Supper was prepared by the hosts, ably assisted by the ladies of the group. Mrs. G. Wilson, Mrs. G. Kornetz, Mrs. G. Bradford, Mrs. Earl Scott, Mrs. Douglas Scott, Miss Olive Girard, Mrs. T. McDonald, Mrs. A. Girard and Mrs. R. Hall.

Musical numbers were much enjoyed, played by Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Cordaro, Miss George, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Girard and Mr. William Clegg. The Georgetown Company looks forward to the circuit servant's visit, which never fails to strengthen and encourage the company.

Flooded Oil Burner Threatens Apartment
The fire brigade was called on Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. John Cordaro's apartment in their building on Main Street. A flooded oil burner threatened to cause a blaze, but the danger was overcome with no damage to the building.

SCOUT NEWS
The tree planting expedition was not held last Saturday owing to the rain but the Scouts hope to be on the job this week-end. Tents and sleeping bags are ready. Patrols will plan their own meals.
Cub Camp dates have been set. There will be two camps, Junior and Senior — Junior Camp will be held at Humber Glen, June 29th to July 2nd, and the Senior Camp will be held from July 2nd to July 6th at Humber Glen.
Scout Camp will be held during the week of July 8th. The site has not been decided.
Now is the time to start preparing for camp. Save your money now so that you can pay your own way. Your parents will appreciate your effort.
What about your uniform? Is it complete? Some day soon we shall be going to a Scouts Own for the district. Georgetown made a good showing in the last two parades held at Burlington. Let us keep our good record. To do that every Scout and Cub ought to be in uniform.
Save your paper, books, and magazines for the Boy Scout paper collection on the last Saturday in May.
Plans are being completed for the Scout and Cub Concert to be held on May 16th.

GOSPEL SERVICE
Sunday, May 6th, 7 p.m.
Georgetown Oddfellows Hall
Mrs. Peterson will be giving the evening message. You are cordially invited.
"Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke 13:3
Rev. E. R. Peterson in charge
