Toronto Minister Speaks At Special WMS Service

The joint thanksgiving service of the WMS organizations was held on Sunday night, Miss B. Hilts gave the scripture reading and exposition the theme being "Jesus Calling His Disciples." Mrs. M. Baker led in prayer. Two choruses by the Mission Band were much enjoyed and a reading on Christian Stewardship was given by Mrs. N. Sinclair, representing the Evening Auxilliary. The Circle received the offering and gave the dedicatory prayer. Mrs. F. J. Shortill sang a solo entitled "Come Ye Blessed," which was much appreciated. Rev. W. A. Hunnisett of "Fred Victor Mission, Toronto," was present and gave a stirring address, the subject being "Are missions worthwhile?" taking his audience to various mission fields and narrating a story or two about each one. He made it quite clear that the good work that has been done down through the years can never be erased. The doors are open in many countries as never before for spreading the gospel, let us not fail in this time of great opportunity.

Peter and Jean Lawr who were quite seriously ill last week are improving now.

Miss Bonny Carlisle is convalescing from an appendectomy which she underwent at Guelph General Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKay spent the week-end with friends in town.

Mr. Morgan Madill is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. We hope he will soon be recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cotton and family spent the week end with friends in Orangeville.

Anniversary Services Confirmation at Glen Churches Sunday

Both Glen churches were well attended Sunday, when each had planned special services.

At St. Alban's, Bishop Bagnall confirmed six new members joining the church, Donna Bennett, Jacqueline Lucas, Mrs. Philip Hayes, Mrs. J. Hooper, Eloise Child, and Bob Hooper.

The United Church held their anniversary services with Rev. D. J. M. Buttars of Inglewood preaching in the evening, a joint recital featured Georgetown High School girls' choir, directed by Marion Hepburn and the Georgetown String Quartette, directed by William Young. Miss Shirley Forbes was soloist. The Friendship Club served lunch to the choir after the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hancock spent Saturday in Bronte with her mother, Mrs. Laura Poole and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Poole.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn and Mrs. William Schenk visited in Collingwood on Saturday with Mrs. John Hepburn, Sr.

Mr. Eric Hipkin of Toronto was a Sunday visitor with his cousin, Ray Addy.

Guests Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Felker were her brother, Robert Sanderson, Viola Perry, Pearl Reynolds and Sam McDaw of Toronto.

A good crowd attended the hockey club dance Friday in the Hall by popular demand another dance is planned in two week's time, the proceeds to be used for uniforms for the softball team.

A special feature of Teen Town in the Hall this Friday will be the presence of an instructor who will offer help to anyone having difficulties with square dancing.

A meeting of the Willing Helpers was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Albert Presswood. A former member, Mrs. F. Beam of Toronto, attended the meeting.

St. Alban's Guild met last Wednesday and planned a euchre party Thursday in the Parish Hall.

MARK MOTHER'S DAY IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The last in a series of sermons based on the Beatitudes was given by Rev. John M. Smith in St. John's United Church on Sunday morning and was entitled, "Costly not Costly." The text was read from Matt. 5, verses 10-12 and the lesson from Luke 14:15-25. The choir sang the anthem "Sun of My Soul" and a duet "Blessed Hour of Prayer" was sung by Mrs. J. Bailey and Miss I. Dobson.

The evening meditation was entitled "Lights in the Dark." Miss I. Dobson accompanied the congregational singing.

The flowers decorating the church were placed to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Erwin by members of the family.

It was announced that special services would be held in the Sunday School and Church next Sunday-in keeping with Mother's Day which is becoming known in the Church as Christian Family Sunday. The Sacrament of Infant Baptism will be observed at morning worship.
