Courteously Yours...

Giving you the kind of telephone service you want is our job. You want it to be fast and dependable — and to keep on getting better. But at the same time, we believe there's more to good service than just technical efficiency and steady improvement.

We think you like telephone people to be friendly, pleasant and easy to get along with. You want to deal with someone who takes a real interest in your problems and who is willing to give you a little extra attention.

That's the kind of service we want you to have. It makes your telephone mean more to you, makes our job mean more to us.

Bird of ill omen?

Not so. The turkey vulture, or "buzzard" of Southern Ontario is a very valuable bird. He is one of our finest scavengers, spending his time clearing our woods of carrion. There aren't many of them — they should be protected.

WE HAD HOPED to see the peach blossoms this year, but hardly think we'll make it. Depends on the weatherman. Blossom Sunday was officially set for last Sunday, but having learned our lesson once when we attempted to penetrate a traffic jam past Burlington, which beat all traffic jams we've ever seen — never again on a Sunday, blossoms or no blossoms. The time to make the trip is during the week, and that for us, as for most people, is easier said than done. However, if the weather doesn't warm up too fast, we may get to see them yet.

Yes, peach blossoms — or any fruit trees in bloom present but one of nature's glorious vistas. Another equally beautiful, but entirely different vista is photographed in natural colours on a postcard sent us by Miss Annie Ryan from La Jolla, San Diego. And Miss Ryan assures us that the colourful photo showing the deep blue of the Pacific, out-matching even the blue of the sky overhead, is no exaggeration. With the surf pounding against picturesque rock formations, contrasting with the whiteness of sand beaches, it does present an enticement picture. Miss Ryan just returned from a 10-week vacation in California; thoroughly enjoyed her trip and judging from the scenery in that southern vacation-land we can only add — small wonder!

SCENES OF HER homeland, familiar to Mrs. Bert Hill, when she left Scotland, thirty-nine years ago, will hold beauty tinged with nostalgia, when she visits there later this month. Mrs. Hill, who sails aboard the Ascania from Montreal on the 22nd of May, will stay with her sister, Mrs. William Stewart, Mr. Stewart and their son and daughter Mrs. Hill has her return passage booked for September 6th.

JUST TO KEEP the records straight — we discovered that we were in error, last week, telling you that "The Member of the Wedding" won the Pulitzer Prize. Instead, it was winner of the Drama Critics' Circle Award 1950 and Donaldson awards.

DO YOU READ Lita Dempsey's column "Person to Person" in the Globe & Mail? If you do you'll probably recall her article in last Thursday's paper, about baby Lynda Patterson, outstanding infant daughter of Mrs. Alfred Patterson, Toronto. But you probably wouldn't be aware that Mrs. Patterson is the former Ethel Ganton of Georgetown and sister of Mrs. Start Allen. For this reason, you'll doubtless find it doubly interesting to hear about her remarkable baby Lynda, when born 2 1/2 months prematurely on March 16th, weighed only 2 pounds five ounces. And there were two especially important factors about this little mite of humanity that made her a very special premature.

First of all was her amazing vitality. Under such circumstances the babe-in-incubator is left undisturbed as much as is feasible. But Lynda did not follow the usual pattern and by the third day she opened her eyes and was squirming over on her back, a feat practically unheard of under the circumstances. And now that Lynda is home, a bright alert five-pound-four-ounce, Mrs. Patterson has established something of a triumph of maternity over fact, in that she is able to nurse her child after all these weeks of separation, when Lynda was artificially fed. This is probably attributable to Mrs. Patterson's determination and certainty that this child, the second after one she has lost, would live and flourish.

In a recent housing move on Churchill Crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Stapleton have moved from town, and their house is rented by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Footitt and their two children. Mr. Footitt is employed at Alliance Paper Mills Ltd., and up to the present, the Footitts have been living in their home town of Acton. Mrs. Footitt, the former Jean Bennie, attended High School here.

Also on Churchill Crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Don Arthurs, and daughter Lynda, have moved from their house and will make their home with Mrs. Arthurs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Riddall on George Street.

A NEW RESIDENT of town is Mrs. M. Sheffield, of Erin. Mrs. Sheffield, a sister of Mrs. Robert Andrews, occupies the other half of the double white frame house, next to the Baptist Church, where the Andrews live. Mrs. Sheffield is a widow with a grown family, all of whom are married and living away from home.

STAYING WITH Mrs. Sheffield is 90-year old Mr. C. E. McMillan, also formerly of Erin. Mr. McMillan who celebrated his 90th birthday, April 24th, is well-known in this district as a violinist. Several times he has won the Old Tyme Fiddlers' Contest at the CNE. Before retirement, Mr. McMillan was in the real estate business in Erin. He is a native of Erin Township and has two sons, Elmer on a farm near Erin and Theodore of Port Dover.

The couple who occupied the side of the house where Mrs. Sheffield now lives, were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kleckner. They came from Saskatchewan, and after living in town for a short time, returned to that province.

THOUGHT WED just add our congratulations to the many which have been extended to C. E. Start, K.C., of Tara, one of the oldest practicing solicitors in Canada, who a week last Sunday, quietly celebrated his 91st birthday. We have met this fine gentleman through friend-husband's family. His son, J. E. Start, a lawyer practicing in Windsor, is married to our sister-in-law. Mr. C. E. Start has been practicing law in Tara for 68 years, and we'd say another near-record is established in the fact the men of his family have been lawyers for five generations. His great grandfather practised at Plymouth, England. His grandfather was an Ontario lawyer after he came to Canada from England. His father practised at Hamilton. And his son, J. E. Start, as we mentioned before, is practicing in Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cunningham and children Ross and Nancy have moved to Jordan Station. The Cunninghams have lived in one of Mr. Harold Marshall's apartments on Queen Street for the two years they have been in town.

Two electric lamps have been placed in the chancel of St. John's Church by Mr. and Mrs. William Hulls in memory of Mrs. Hulls' mother, Mrs. Cash. Rev. J. E. Fourteen members attended the meeting of St. John's Guild at Mrs. J. C. Murray's home Tuesday evening. The ladies are busy sewing and knitting for their fall bazaar.

The May meeting of the A.Y.P.A. was held in the school Friday with a good attendance, and Rev. J. E. Maxwell conducted the devotional period. Mrs. C. Blizzard won a contest "Hidden Books of the Bible". Games were under the direction of Frances Jenkinson and Lois Bessey. Mrs. E. Hodge and Mrs. C. A. Grant were hostesses for lunch.

The basis of Canadian prosperity is a high national income distributed with regard to individual contribution to production.

A combined meeting of the Cubs, Scouts, CGIT and Explorers was held in St. John's Memorial Hall on Friday evening. The occasion was centred on a visit of Bob Goldham who spoke to the group and answered the many questions of the young hockey enthusiasts of the group. Movies were shown and presentations of a flashlight to Cub Bob Kidd and a Scout knife to Cub Tom Forgrave were made. These awards were made for high achievement in card sales. A fine lunch was served by ladies of the Boy Scout Auxiliary.

The Boy Scouts Ladies Auxiliary will meet in St. John's Sunday School room on Monday, 8 p.m.

A number of Second Class Scouts are planning to form a patrol and attend the St. Williams Camporee and Forestry week-end.

Regular pack meetings of the Leaping Wolves, Little Beavers and Eagles were held on regular nights.

Cub Choir will be discontinued for the summer months after Wednesday evening.
