

Newlyweds Will Make Their Home In Oakville

St. Paul's United Church parsonage, Milton, was decorated with sweet peas and maiden hair fern on Saturday, May 12th, for the wedding of Barbara Joan McLennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLennan, R. R. 3, Georgetown and Lorne Wilfrid Hawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hawes, Gloucester Road, Oakville. Rev. James L. Blair officiated.

The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin and nylon net with a sweetheart neckline and a full-length veil caught to a halo of mother-of-pearl. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

The groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. A. M. Hawes, Oakville, as matron of honour wore powder blue taffeta with matching headdress and carried a cascade of pink carnations and ivy. Dolph Hawes, Oakville, was groomsmen for his brother.

At a reception for fifty guests in Sunday School room of the church, the bride's mother wore delphinium blue crepe with yellow accessories and a corsage of camelias and pink roses. The groom's mother, who assisted in receiving the guests, chose a dress of navy blue crepe with matching accessories and a similar corsage.

For a honeymoon trip in the States, the bride changed to a powder blue gabardine suit with navy accessories and a pale yellow shortie coat, enhanced with a corsage of pink roses and silver ivy. They will live in Oakville.

NORVAL

Banquet for Four Champion Teams

Norval's four championship hockey teams of the past season were entertained on Thursday in St. Paul's Parish Hall by the ladies of the Women's Institute. Mr. Egbert C. Reed, acted as chairman for the occasion and in his opening remarks congratulated the teams in winning the top honours of the whole series. Mr. Reed told the gathering that the achievement of the four teams in bringing the championship in each group to Norval was almost unprecedented for a village of this size.

At the commencement of the dinner a draw was made on a hockey stick and won by J. D. Cameron, and at the same time three CAHA hockey manuals were presented to all the players. Toast were presented to each team and replies were made by George Grasby for the Midgets, Ken Richardson for the Bantams, Peter Pomeroy for the Pee Wees and James Teramoto for the Novices. A telegram was read from Rev. J. L. Self of Midland expressing his regret at not being able to be present for the banquet. Mr. Eddie McLean, who had faithfully coached all four teams expressed his appreciation for the cooperation he had received from the boys stating that there was still much for them to learn but they had played extremely well during the past season.

The chairman then introduced Mr. Pat Patterson, a new resident in the district, who is a senior hockey referee. Mr. Patterson spoke to the boys on the necessity of playing a clean game and pointed out several new rules to be in force during the coming season. He pointed out that the successful hockey player must develop high moral qualities as well as physical ability. Following this address a vote of appreciation was given to the ladies of the W.I. to which Mrs. Wilbert Cleave replied. Guests present during the evening included the three local clergy, each of whom spoke briefly, and the Rev. L. Royal, newly inducted minister of the Presbyterian Church was introduced by the chairman of the gathering.

Among those assisting in the kitchen were the following: Mrs. Harold Gollop, Mrs. Eddie Burke, Mrs. Lawrence May, Mrs. W. Cleave, Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. Clegg, Mrs. B. Cave, Mrs. Graydon Chester, Miss Prairie Maguire and Mrs. Walter Fidler.

Following the supper moving pictures sponsored by Carling Breweries were shown, depicting Tropical Fishing, Game Birds, The Training of Hunting Dogs, and Hockey in ### Canada.

The boys will be pleased to learn that a committee under Mr. E. C. Reed is planning to present suitable treats to all the members of the teams in the near future.

Due to the service of confirmation to be held in St. John's Church, Stewarttown, this Sunday evening, the regular Sunday worship of St. Paul's, Norval, will be held at 10 a.m. instead of 7.30 p.m.

Miss Prairie Maguire has returned home after spending several months in Regina, Sask., where her father has been quite ill.
