GLEN WILLIAMS
ORKNEY ISLANDER FORMER GLEN RESIDENT

A former Glen resident, Mrs. Thomas Muir, died at her home in Eday, Orkney Islands, on May 4th, at the age of 87.

Mrs. Muir lived for some years in Glen Williams with her sister, the late Mrs Robert Armstrong. She returned to the Old Country about fifteen years ago. She was an aunt of Ernest Forgrave of town and Mrs. F. R. Dunham, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Haines and sons went to Glenwood Beach, Lake Simcoe, for the week-end to open their summer cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson, a niece of Mr. Haines, are staying there this week.

Bonny Lee Hills, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hills celebrated with a birthday party on Monday. Her guests were Jeanette and Linda Davies, Michael and Brian Hills, Linda Ward, Wayne Thompson, Joanne and Donna Kér, Betty Hills, Heather and Peter Haines, Suzanne and Collin Blyth, her sister Barbara and cousins Jackie and Linda Barclay and her grandmother, Mrs. David Barclay.

The 24th will be celebrated in the Glen with a ball game between Glen Williams and Limehouse. Coffee and hot dogs will be sold and there will be a sing-song afterwards. Residents are asked to bring their fireworks to augment those which are being supplied. A silver collection will defray expenses.

Local stores will close Thursday for the May 24th holiday. Industries are operating as usual, and closing on Friday or Monday.

MACKENZIE NEWS
I wonder if apple blossom time in Normandy could be more beautiful than in Esqueving Township?

A neat but inexpensive wall covering for a garage or back kitchen is roll brick siding. In red with black line, or buff with black line it is $4.75 per square. Roll stone siding in grey is $5.80 per square.

See you holidaying on the 24th; or maybe for you it is the 25th or 28th.
