THE WEATHER

Mr. Editor:

I don't suppose there would be much complaint about the weather this week, especially over the holiday. In fact it has been quite a summer up-to now even though we may get an early fall in June.

James H. Wilson was Once Road Foreman

A former Halton County road foreman, James H. Wilson died on May 19th at his home, R. R. 3, Milton. Born in Equeusing in 1878, he had been in ill health for the past year.

He is survived by his wife, Sarah Jane Hanna and six children, Stanley, Ernest, Arthur and Ruth, Milton; Mrs. D. McNabb (Vera), Dundas; and Alex, Fort Erie.

Mr. Wilson was a member of Boston Presbyterian Church and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. N. McFaul with interment in Milton Cemetery. Pallbearers were Archie and John McGibbon, Clifford Hardy, Neil McCallum, William Robertson, and John Irving.

In addition to about $340 federal taxes on a $2000 car, in some provinces Canadian pays provincial and municipal taxes.

Latest development in the North Halton high school district is a decision of the school board that the wisest thing to do is to build new schools at Acton and Georgetown and keep the district a three school one.

A special meeting of the board last night in Stewarstown threshed the problem out. A motion had been tabled at last week's meeting, calling for a second school at Georgetown, which would eliminate a school in Acton for the present. Acton board members took strong exception to this and pointed out that Acton and surrounding district has over the required 600 public school enrolment to form their own district, intimating that this would be Acton's answer to the motion. It was pointed out that Georgetown and Acton are growing steadily and that indications are that the towns will eventually need their own schools. There has been some talk of building a school at Silvercreek for the two towns, but should one or both towns grow, this would end up as a "white elephant."

The school board voted unanimously in favour of two new schools and appointed John Bell, Georgetown, Arlof Dills, Acton and Nelson Pickett, Milton, to interview the Dept. of Education on the matter. If the Dept. approves, cost estimates will be prepared and the five municipal councils will then be interviewed.

The motion to build two new schools, which was made by Dr. J. B. Milne, Georgetown, and Arlof Dills, Acton, also calls for the addition of a gymnasium on the Milton school and suggests that Georgetown and Acton donate the sites for the proposed new schools.

Local Children Make Their First Communion

Fifteen children, including a group from Holy Cross Church made their first communion a week ago Sunday in St. Joseph's Church, Acton. The Georgetown young people were Thomas Beene, Michael Doyle, Danny Golden, Phillip Rau, Mary Jane Tucker and Aileen Vary. Solemn communion was observed by Catherine McGrath who made her first communion last year, and Dennis and Peter Gibbons, Acton.

The girls were attired in white dresses and veils and the boys wore white armbands and a flower in their lapel. The church was decorated with spring flowers and a children's choir sang.

Enrico Caruso Buys Licata Fruit Business

One of Main Street's best known businesses has changed hands.

Enrico Caruso of Brampton took over ownership of Licata's Fruit Market Monday morning. The fruit and vegetable business will be known from now on as Caruso's Fruit Market.

Mr. Caruso is the son of Sam Caruso, who operates a fruit store in Brampton and he learned the business working with his father. His parents came to Canada from Sicily 45 years ago and have been located in Brampton since 1917.

Enrico, after graduating from high school joined the army and later won his commission with the armoured corps. He served overseas with the Lincoln and Welland Regiment in World War 2. He is unmarried. In Brampton he was chairman of the town basketball league.

Assisting him in the business will be his younger brother, Lennie, who starred as a junior lacrosse player with Brampton and was chosen to play in the west last year with St. Catharines Juniors. Joey, another of Enrico's nine brothers and sisters, plays senior lacrosse with Brampton Excelsior.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Licata, in retiring from business have made no definite plans for the future. They will move into an apartment in Berwick Hall in a few weeks. Mr. Licata will stay with the new owner for a time.

Mr. Licata took over the business in 1930 from his brother-in-law, Tony Restivo. Of Stilian parentage also, Dick worked as a book-keeper for a wholesale fruit firm in Hamilton, then trucked to Buffalo and Detroit for a couple of years and managed the fruit concession in Metropolitan Stores in Hamilton and London for a year before coming to Georgetown. He worked with Mr. Restivo for four years before purchasing the business.

Mr. Restivo has been a Georgetown resident since starting the business here in 1915. The store was first located in the Lillio Beauty Salon premises, then on Mill Street where the liquor store is now, and later in the present location of the Dominion Store. The present location was at one time Millar's Dry Goods Store.

During his years in business Mr. Licata has been one of the town's most public spirited citizens. A former president of the Lions Club, he has been one of the club's most active members. He has campaigned in fund raising activities for the Salvation Army and other worthwhile organizations.
