GLEN WILLIAMS

Three Birthday Parties For Glen Young People

Three young Glen residents celebrated their birthdays last week and each had a party. Doray Sargent, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sargent had his party on the 29th and his guests were Larry Bailey, Danny Robson, Lorne and Jackie Thompson, David Diggins, Billy Lucas, Gordon Hancock, Dennis Foster, Bobby Reid, his brother Doug and sister Betty. On Sunday, there was a little family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robson for 3-year-old Billy. His grandmother, Mrs. Vera Robson, Toronto, was a guest as well as Mr. and Mrs. A. Jardine, also from Toronto. On Monday, Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lucas, was seven and to his party he invited Doray Sargent, David Diggins, Danny Robson, Billy Wheeler, Timmy and Lassy Hafnis, Peter Norton, Gordon, Jimmy and Gail Hancock, Tommy Marshall, Wendy and Doreen Davidson and his sisters, Betty and Jaqueline.

Mr. and Mrs. William Diggins spent the week-end with their son Waldo and his wife, en route to their summer cottage at Tanner's Beach, Waubesa, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Diggins have two cottages there, living in one and renting the other for the summer.

Leonard Benstead visited in Toronto with his mother for the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Vogan, Toronto, have returned to spend their week-ends here in their lovely Glen home which they have named Glen Nora.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davison and Muriel visited in Aurora on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Don Stokes and family.

Owing to the anniversary of Norval United Church on Sunday, there will be no services in the Glen United Church.

Miss Margaret Thornberry and Mr. William Thornberry and Arlene of Hamilton were week-end guests with Mr. and Mrs. John Hepburn.

Mrs. John Wagstaffe entertained members of the Willing Helpers church group at her home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Foster spent Sunday in Toronto with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hancock.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hill were Mr. and Mrs. Joe McMenemy, Thorold, Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey and Bill, Brampton.

Bud Haines was rushed to Guelph General Hospital Saturday evening for an appendicitis operation.

The Glen ball team played a return game Thursday with Limehouse which was won by the home team, 5-2.

NORVAL

MINISTER'S DAUGHTER DIES DAY OF BIRTH

Elizabeth Mary Jean Maxwell, baby daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Maxwell, Norval, died in Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, on Saturday, fifteen hours after birth.

The baby was born in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, and was rushed to Toronto by ambulance because of a respiratory complication.

Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson conducted a funeral service Monday in St. Paul's Church, Norval, and interment was made in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval.

BALLINAFAD

PURCHASE MARKDALE GROCERY STORE

Mr. and Mrs. John May left last week for their new home in Markdale where they have purchased a grocery store.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. George Edmunds and family who received word their son Ron had been killed in active service in Korea with the Princess Pats.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair and family of Oustic spent Sunday with the Norm Sinclairs.

Services here will be withdrawn next Sunday as anniversary is being observed at Melville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warne left on Monday on a motor trip through the western provinces.

TERRA COTTA

CLUB SEES PICTURES OF FLORIDA, CUBA

Terra Cotta Farmers Club held their June meeting Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cook.

Prior to the joint meeting the ladies held a short meeting. Mrs. Eric Leslie conducted a 'brand name' quiz contest which was won by Mrs. Lloyd Crichton.

Music played a big part in the evening's entertainment. Keith and Tommy Leslie played piano solos and vocal solos were sung by Murray McKane and Betty Jean Anderson. Barbara and Robert Carney sang duets.

Mr. Robert Kelly, Oakville, showed coloured pictures which he had taken in Florida and Cuba, and it was of interest to the group to see such things as cypress swamps and the growing of pineapples.

Clarence Anderson was chosen as secretary for medical services which the club will join under the Peel Co-Op plan. Mrs. Wilbert Cleave moved a vote of thanks to those who took part in the program.

Mrs. Clarence Lyons and Mrs. Fred Lyons assisted Mrs. Cook with serving refreshments during a social hour which followed the meeting.

SCOUT NEWS

The paper collection made by the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs netted a good load of paper. Thanks to all who assisted in any way.

The Wolf Cubs have been delivering handbills advertising the auction sale being held by the Scout Group on June 22nd. The group solicits your support in donating any article no longer required at your home. A phone call to 485W, 645W or 606J and your articles will be picked up.

The Boy Scouts were pleased to have Scouter R. J. Smith back as leader on Thursday evening and to have Jim and Clare Burns with them for instruction in tumbling.

A talk on the West Indies is to be given at the next Scout meeting.

A special meeting of ALL dads of Scouts and Cubs is called to be held in St. John's Sunday School Room on Friday of this week. Help us help your boys by giving an hour of your time on Friday evening.

Mimeographed sheets containing information about Cub and Scout Camp will be available soon.

Our Customers . . . Our Friends

We thank you for your patronage during our twenty-one years in business.

Our work, although trying at times, was made pleasant and enjoyable by your cooperation, patience and forbearance.

We are making our home in Georgetown, we hope, for many years to come. Our parting words are not good-bye, but we will see you again.

We wish success and prosperity to our successors.
