Moira Kelly Graduates Takes Hospital Position

Moira Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kelly, was a member of the graduating class of the Macdonald Institute girls' school at the Ontario Agricultural College, in Guelph, on Friday.

Fifty five girls received their diplomas from president Dr. J. D. Mac-Lachlan in War Memorial Hall after the girls paraded acoss the campus in dresses made as part of their training. The address to the graduating class was given by Miss Edith Rowles, M.Sc. associate professor, College of Household Science, University of Saskatchewan.

A luncheon preceded the commencement and tes was served on the campus following the ceremony.

Miss Kelly has taken a position as assistant dietician at the Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, and started her new position there on Monday. Her mother is also a graduate of the home economics course at Mac Hall. 7

FLOWER, CHILDREN DAY PLANNED AT ST. JOHN'S

Regular morning worship was conducted at St. John's United Church on Sunday by the minister Rev. John M. Smith who read the lesson from St. Luke's Gospel Chapter 12, verses 13 to 34. The sermon subject was "One Thing More" and was based on the scripture selection Mark 10: ~17-22. Mrs. James Evans was at the organ in the absence of Norman Laird who was confined to his home by illness.

The flowers decorating the church were placed by Mrs. M: Near in memory of her husband.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Gribbons, Patricia Leah, was baptized at an early afternoon ser-

It was announced that next Sunday would be Flower and Children Day at St. John's. The Sunday School. plans to meet at 10.30 and then attend public worship in a body. Special music has been prepared by the Junior Choir whder the leadership of Norman Laird.
