High Rebekah Award To Mrs. H. C. Bailey

The Degree of Chivalry, one of the highest honours which can be bestowed on a Rebekah was conferred on a Georgetown lady, Mrs. H. C. Bailey on Monday evening. Thirty members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge journeyed by special bus to Toronto to attend special services at the Royal York Hotel in conjunction with the 61st convention of the Rebekah Assembly being held there this week. Mrs. Gordon Spence and Mrs. Alf Collins are representing Verdun Lodge. Mrs. Bailey was one of seventy candidates who received the Degree of Chivalry. It is given to one who has been outstanding in service rendered to their fellowmen by the relief of the wants and suffering of the people.

This ceremony took place at 6:30 and at eight o'clock, the party witnessed the beautiful memorial service, and the opening ceremonies of the Rebekah Assembly which opened its sessions yesterday morning. Verdun members taking part in these ceremonies were the Noble Grand, Mrs. A. C. McBride and Past Noble Grands Mrs. Aileen Bradley and Mrs. Gordon Spence.

Local Donations $145.00 in Store Promotional Scheme

Cheques totalling $145 are being mailed this week to several local and district organizations by Brill's, local clothing store operated by Jack and Fred Cotton. The money represents donations made by shoppers during the month of March which Brill's had designated as Name-Your-Own Charity month. During that month Brill's had offered to donate ten percent of all purchases to any organization or charity which the buyer designated. Cheques range from 24c to over $30; recipients of the largest cheques being the Lions' Club and St. George's Church W.A.

Compilations are still being made for such out-of-town organizations as Sick Children's Hospital, Red Cross, Children's Aid, and Crippled Children's Fund and a list of these will appear in the Herald at a later date. The totals to date are: Lions Club $30.41; IODE $3.78; St. George's building fund $3.23; Daughters of St. George's $3.36; St. George's W.A. $30.73; St. George's Junior W.A. $3.23; St. George's AYPA $1.35; Rebekah and Oddfellow CP&T Fund $5.61; Knox Church organ fund $1.11; Boy Scouts $10.28; St. John's W.A. $14.75; St. John's WMS $2.81; Norval Anglican Church 69c; St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams, 24c; Baptist W.A. $4.31; Knox Church W.A. $7.40; Knox WMS $4c; Knox YLA $2.74; Legion W.A. $5.01; Holy Cross Altar Society $11.82; Local Council of Women, $1.27; Women's Institute $1.05; Limehouse W.I. 33c; Limehouse Church, W.A. 32c; Willing Helpers, Glen United Church 89c; Friendship Club, Glen United Church, 29c; Union Church W.A. 62c.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS
ASK REGISTRATIONS FOR KINDERGARTEN
Letters have been sent out to all parents with children to register for the Kindergarten-Primary class of next September. If however, any child of that age has been overlooked, the parent is asked to bring that child to the school for registration on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 26th, or Wednesday, June 27th. Mrs. Joseph Dwyer will be in her classroom to discuss necessary arrangements then.

The Eager Eagles of the Junior Red Cross, who are members of Grades 6 and 7 held a meeting recently at which Marna Mackenzie presided. Bill Farmer gave an outstanding report on "Bees and Bee-keeping". Another feature of the programme was a talk on "Indians" by Douglas Weir.

Principal Harold Henry received a cheque from the Canadian National Exhibition for a prize in a piece of creative art entitled "Noon Day Rush" done by Susan Fotit, of Grade Seven, who just recently moved to her home in Ottawa. It was unfortunate that the murals were not completed in time for entry.

TERRA COTTA
FATHER DIES IN TORONTO HOSPITAL
(last week)
Our sympathy goes to the Lowin family, whose father died Monday in hospital in Toronto. Alex Zilio met with a painful accident on Friday when he was burned about the arms with gasoline. Mrs. D. Nolan is making her home here with her mother, and is working at the Beaumont Knitting Mills in the Glen.

The boys are busy getting the new ballfield ready. The field has been donated to them by William Hunter. An adjoining field is being sold for building lots. Mr. and Mrs. Stokes of Todmorden visited with Mr. and Mrs. McBride on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Savage of Oakville were visitors with Mrs. Petch. Mrs. A. Rhodes is visiting with friends in Toronto. The Flyers lost the ball game on Sunday to Glen Williams, score 21-4.

MR. AND MRS. RICHES MOVE TO VILLAGE
We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Riches to the community. Mr. Riches is working at Malton. Miss Mary Lyons is home on a month's holiday. Glad to see Jim Emmerson home for awhile from Sunnybrook Hospital, where he has been taking treatment for some time for a back injury. Mrs. H. Puckering and son were visiting with her husband in Owen Sound. Terra Cotta Flyers beat the Glen 11-6 in Sunday's ball game. The Thimble Club is holding a euchre on June 29th. Admission 35c and 15c. Everybody welcome.
