THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

TWELVE PAGES

Georgetown, Ontario, Wednesday, June 27th, 1951

TWELVE PAGES

Barns, houses, trees and telephone poles bore the brunt of a "twister"

which blasted a five-mile trail through Hornby early Wednesday find a miraculous escape when the twister lifted them off the ground and hurled them 50 feet into a culvert. They were Lloyd Wood, his 5-

'year-old daughter Bonnie and Frank ripped off, garage destroyed and 400

chickens killed when the chicken house was carried away by the wind. In the house at the time were

Mr. and Mrs. Newton, their daughter Grace, Harry Locke and six young children from a Toronto wel-

The b.rn of Russell King, near the Newton home was demolished and timbers scattered over a wide

ara. Huge elm trees were uprooted or completely shorn of their foliage.

Similar damage was done to several other barns in the path of the storm.

In one barn a load of hay was blown 120 feet across the barn and the wagon tongue pushed through the CBC transmitting station but did it no damage. Hundreds of sightseers thronged the area and traffic was jammed on Sunday as they came to marvel at the damage. There were a few flat tires from nails and glass which was blown into the pavement.

1923 when a similar twister struck on election day, leaving a trail of damage in its wake.

It was Hornby's worst storm since

The storm passed close to the

One of the hardest hit was Harry

No one was injured. Three people

Barns, Houses Damaged As Twister Strikes

Campbell.

fare agency.

framework.

-Ern Batkin Newton. The roof of his house was

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. William Bonathan Sauble Beach.

Mrs. Dorothy Deriham, Joyce, Bruce and Lois are spending their holidays at Sundridge.

Mrs John Lenz is convalescing in Guelph General Hospital after undergoing an operation last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moran and family of Humber Bay were weekand guests with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hayward.

Miss Isabel Butler, Kitchener, is visiting this week at the rectory with Archdeacon and Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson.

Week-end visitors with Miss A. Rutherford were her brother-in-law and sister. Mr. and Mrs. James Barr, Zoronto.

Mrs J. E. Start of Windsor was visitor today with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Biehn.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sayers, Sharon and Billy, and his mother Mrs. William Sayers of Priceville spent last week at Ubly, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harding and the latter's mother of Toronto were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Len Harding.

Prior to his transfer to the Delhi branch last week, members of the Bank of Commerce branch here presented Bill Arnold with a travelling alarm clock.

Miss Georgina Young, former member of the public school staff, who now makes her home in Milton was visiting with Miss Annie Ryan for a few days this week.

Little Betty Sue Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, who was taken suddenly very ill last Thursday with scarlet fever, is now progressing favourably.

Miss Joan Bishop, a piano pupil of Mary MacKinnon Shore, has passed with honours her Grade 8 examinations at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto.

Pupils of Kenneth Harrison, ARCT, RMT, who have completed their mid-summer exams at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, include Joy Barber, honours in Grade 1 piano; Virginia Barber. Grade 2 piano; Anna Spitzer, honcours in Grade 4 vocal.

Mrs. Albert Tennant and Mrs. E McDermott held a shower at the latter's home last Wednesday for Miss Grace Scott, whose marriage to Stan Adair of Schomberg will take place this Saturday. Twenty friends attended.

Gloria Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Boyd, Queen Street, celebrated her eleventh birthday with party Friday after school. Her guests were Gillian Chapman, Gail McGilvray, Judy McCumber, Barbara Alcott, Barbara Bowman, Helen Muckart Gloria Bain, Peggy Ann McNiven, and Dianne Hillock.

Visitors from England with Mr. and Mrs. George Sivill at their rarm mear town are Mrs. Sivill's sister, Mrs. James Roach and her sons Collin and Frankie. Mrs. Sivill and Mrs. Roach are sisters. The visitors, who crossed from England on the 8.S. Franconia last month, will spend the summer here.

Karen Blyth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blyth, celebrated ther seventh birthday Saturday with a party at her home. Her guests were Myrna Cook, Jacqueline Shepherd. Jimmy Swackhamer, Gary Renwick, Gail Scarlett, Lanie Lenz, Barbara McBain, Patsy Laws, her cousing Sharon Blyth and Patricia Bell, and her brother and sister, Colin and Suzanne.

Visiting with Dr. and Mrs. A. Mc-Allister this week is the doctor's nephew, Mr. John Forbes of Houston. Texas. Mr. Forbes is a natlive of Seaforth and with the Mc-Allisters will attend a family refunion later this month. He is retired from his position as an auditor with the Southern Pacific Railway.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reinhardt of Wiarton, who visited in town last week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Moyer, attended the wedding in Toronto on Saturday of Molly Mullen, and Dr. Charles Baranatickes of Niagara Falls, N.Y. Mrs. Reinhardt and Miss Mullen 'were chool friends in Toronto. Dr. and Mrs. Baranauckas were guests at he Reinhardt wedding here earlier this month.

Prior to her marriage a week ago sturday to Albert Norton, Eva regirls at Smith & Stone had a pital in the local OPP cruiter. cellaneous shower.

Kent Riddall, son of Mr. and Mrs. and Judy spent last week-end at Dick Riddall, celebrated his ninth birthday on Thursday with a party at his home on Ostrander Boulevard. His guests were Carolyn Biehn, Carole Greensward, Jill and Ricky Chapman, Trudy and Gary Scott, Agnes Nelson, Paulene Watson, Paul Graham, Margaret Eason, Freddie Harrison, Norman Lockhurst, Ross Peters, Jimmie Lindsay, his cousins Lynda Arthurs and David Hall. and his brother Wayne.

> Guests at the wedding of Albert Norton and Eva Hamilton, which took place in Georgetown Baptist Chuch on June 16th included: Mrs. Josephine Crichton, Mrs. Harold Crichton, and Mrs. James Bennie, Guelph; Mrs. E. McAdam and Mr. William McAdam, Beeton; Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradley, Mr. Bert Bonneau, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. William J. Norton, Mr, and Mrs. John R. Hamilton, Rev. Alfred Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Norton, Mrs. Ruth Hamilton, Miss Joyce Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. William McClements, Johnny and Ruth, Mrs. Elmer Hill, Mrs. Harvey King, Mr. Douglas Herrington, Mrs Wellington Willett, Mrs. R. H. Wright, Mr. Douglas Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laws, Mr and Mrs. Hugh Wylie, Mr. Thomas Hamilton, Mr. Bruce Norton, Mr. W. Hill, Howard, John, David, James and Linda Hamilton.

> Georgetown Lions Club combined their induction of officers with a ladies night last Tuesday, when club members entertain their wives at Hilltop Lodge, Erin. Among those attending were Deputy District Governor Frank Bartlett, Hamilton, Zone Chairman, Doug Fleming, Dundas, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steen Erin, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitmee, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrager, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Spence McKinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McNamara, Mr. and and Mrs. Edwin Wilson,, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Rawson, Mr. and Mrs. Art Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gunning, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Licata, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldham, Mr. and Mrs Jack Runham, Mr. Bill Barry, Miss Shirley Muckart, Mr. Elmer Dron, Mr. Joe McBain.

Sunday Church Parade For Oddfellows, Rebekahs

Oddfellows and Rebekahs held their annual church parade to St. George's Church on Sunday evening. Led by Georgetown Girls Pipe Band lodge members and visitors from district lodges marched from the Oddfellows Hall to the church where Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson gave an appropriate address during the service.

In the afternoon the lodges held a decoration service in Greenwood Cemetery in 'memory of deceased members, the pipe band also being present at this service. MacCormack, Harvey Dewhurst, Gordon Spence, William Ritchie, James Collier and William Cumpsty were among the Oddfellows who took part in the service. Mrs. A. C. McBride, Mrs. Bert Tuck, Miss Mabel Forgrave and Mrs. Jack Presswood acted for the Rebekahs. Arch-

PTE. JAMES BRANDON

Serving in Korea with the 25th Battalion, 2nd Brigade, Princess Patricia Light Infantry, is a Georgetown soldier, Pte James Brandon, A native of Hamilton he was working at the Alliance Paper Mill when he enlisted. He trained at Calgary and Fort Lewis, Washington, before going overseas. He is married to the former Joan Tuck of George-

Girls Pipe Band Has Many June Engagements

by pipe major Mrs. Mary Patterson will participate in Hamilton's fifth annual Scottish Gathering on Friday. The bend will be one of thirty from Canada and the States which

The pipe hand has a heavy season booked up already this year. They started their 1951 engagements week ago Saturday, playing for a picnic of Ditto Company employees at Huttonville. They have also apgames at the Exhibition Grounds, a Masonic garden party in Brampton, and last Saturday made appearances at Malton Lions Club carniin the evening. Sunday they paraded with the Oddfellows and Re-

The girls are selling tickets at June 20 .... 76 present on a lucky draw project June 21 .... 73 which will send some lucky two- June 22 ..... 63 some on all-expense cruise to June 23 Bermuda.

Next Monday, July 2nd, is a public holiday in Georgetown.

HORNBY

THE WEATHER

How often we get storms about summer. This year proved no

the 21st of June, marking the start exception, and we were very fortunate to be out of the line of the twisters which accompanied the storms, in other sections of the country. This week's summary, however,

51.71

June 19 ..... 81

June 24 . . . . 80

Average .... 75.28

Newlyweds will Make

Rev. Crawford Smith officiated at a quiet wedding in Knox Church,

Guelph, on Friday, June 22nd, when

Irene Lillian Fisher, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A.

Fisher, R. R. S. Georgetown, was united in marriage with James Fraser Rae, Brantford, son of Mrs: Rae with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. After a honeymoon trip in western Ontario, they will reside at 36 Westmount Boulevard,

LIONS, MINISTERS SPONSOR

1951 STAY-AT-HOME CAMP

The bride wore a white linen suit and the late D. W. Rae, Wrexeter.

Home in Brantford

Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, led will appear in the Civic Arena at the Toronto highland showed we had plenty of rain. val and a similar carnival at Elmira bekahs -at a decoration service and June 18 .... 82 church parade in town.

ENTRANCE RESULTS FOR GEORGETOWN PUBLIC SCHOOL

George Andrews Barbara Bradley Susan Crabtree Marilyn Cleave Brian Goodlet Jacqueline Graham Ross McGilvray Alex Mackenzie Dorothy Oates Marjorie Roe Patricia Willison

James Beckett Dorothy Brandford Mervin Davidson Joyce Denham Ellen Dickenson Fred Dickenson Irene Fogg Wayne Gribbons Roy Henderson Jack Handy *Ronald Herrington Ann Hyde John Livingstone ' Margaret McGuigan Jean Muckart *Bruce Norton Terrence Norton Louise Oliver Joan Schultz Sandra Scott Donald Seddon Pauline Smith Barbara Thompson Donna Timbers Barry Timleck

Robert Tracey

Douglas Tucker

Kathleen Williams

David Tost Honours — Average of 75 per cent or over.

Pass: Average of 60 per cent or over; not less than 40 per cent in any one subject. Recommended.

deacon Thompson delivered a short address and music for the hymns was played by Charles Willson, Jack Armstrong and Reg Ryall.

TERRA COTTA

Bonfire "Blows Up" Boy Suffers Burns

A 13-year old Terra Cotta lad was seriously injured Monday when some bags he' threw on a bonfire "blew up" on him.

The accident occurred when Robert Elwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elwood, threw some bags on a bonfire. He told police the bags "blew up" on him, but it is not known whether there was something in the bags which exploded or whether the wind blew them over his body. The young lad, who was wearing only shorts and shoes, was badly burned about the chest, arms, face and left leg. Mr. Foster, a summer resident, rushed him to the office of Dr. R. T. Paul in Georgetown, was tendered several who gave him first aid treatment on: Mrs. Harrison Ring Queen proved today, but it will be some choir. Mr. Harrison has a similar held a pantry shower in her time before he can leave the boopi- position at St. Andrew's Church, ir and Mrs. Wellington Willett, tal. He is bandaged from head to Guelph, and is accompanist for the

Local Musicians Get Their ARCT Degrees

Two local music teachers have completed their examinations for their ARCT degrees.

Miss Marion Hepburn, who secured her ARCT in voice last June, can now use the degree as a planist also. She is a pupil of Thelma Capps Morrison, Brampton.

Kenneth R. Harrison passed with honours his ARCT exams as a solo performer. He is a pupil of Gordon Hallett, Toronto.

Both these young local people are making careers as teathers and ers and presentations. The pot- andh ad him taken to Guelph Hos- choir leaders. Miss Hepburn teaches music at several district schools er at the home of Mrs. Clifford His condition is reported as im- and is organist and leader of Knox top for tresiment of the burns and only Maler Choir, a Bramston and Thompson.

Control of the Contro

Stone School Forum

Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. George Henderson. There were many children, and as they so often say of these iffairs "a good time was had by all."

The party started off with vocal duets by Marilyn Souther and Muriel Appleyard and Muriel and Earl Burt which were much appreciated Certainly the games proved quite hilarious and guessing contest was fun too; prize winners being Mrs. R. Souther and Mr. Ben Case. The other prize winners were Shirley Burt and Mr. W. Norton, with Mrs. K. C. Lindsay and Mr. H. Campbell as consolation prize-win-

The lovely large home of the Hendersons lent itself most admirably to such a host of friends and neighbours and the strawberries were most plentiful, together with all the other good things to eat. Members of the Stone School Forum enjoy the monthly get-togethers planned for the summer and the July party will be anticipated with the usual enthusiasm.

Meet At Hendersons

Monday evening the Stone School about sixty neighbours, including

GRADE VIII TO GRADE IX:

Roger Addy, Bill Barclay, Donna

Bennett, Carol Crosby, Sylvia Diggins, Eva Garvin, Marie Gibbs, Dennis Handy, Elsie Larsen, Kathleen

Leeder, Carol Ottaway, Gordon

Preston, James Schenk. Grade 8-

Leonard Benstead, Ted Hancock,

Bobby Hooper, Stanley Norton,

John Ottaway, Jean Young. Laura

Young. Recommended: Donna Mc-

Edith Beaumont, Audrey Cain,

Marlene Cain; Muriel Davison, Paul

Eason, Joan Hilts, Robert Hilts, Elizabeth Ward, Fred Young, Recommended - Violet Lusty, Bernice

Ward, Janke Dykstra. Grade 5:

Betty Avery, Kenneth Beam, Reggie Crosby, Gerald Felker, Jean

Gambell, Lorraine Garvin, Harvey

Handy, Maureen Repburn, Gail

Hogben, Shirley Hogben, Louise

Kidd, Betty Lucas, Marylynn Reid,

'Gordon Riggs, Douglas Sargent,

Douglas Ward, Stephanie Gillis.

Sandra Allan, Lois Cain, Dennis.

Foster, Michele Gillis, Dennis Hancock, Roland Hancock, Clinton Handy, Dorothy Lusty, Catharine Mc-

Grath, Gloria McQuarrie, Patsy

Norton, Penny Norton, Brian Puck-

cock, Marlene Kemshead, Wayne

Han-

Recommended: Elaine Scott.

GRADE II TO GRADE III:

Norton, Keith Preston.

Isabel Beaumont, Carolyn

Quarrie. Grade 6: James Ellison.

Jacqueline Lucas, Mary Mino, Eddie

Norton, Marjorie Stewart. Recom-

Jack McQuarrie, James Young.

GRADE WII TO GRADE VIII

mended, Leroy Hilts.

GRADE VI TO GRADE VII:

GRADE V TO GRADE VI:

GRADE IV TO GRADE V:

Recommended: Billie Hilts."

GRADE III TO IV:

Charles Gibbs.

PROMOTION RESULTS FOR

GLEN WILLIAMS SCHOOL

School entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norman Laird, Mrs. G. Creighton, Mrs. William Ure, Mrs. Fred Sinclair, Rev. and Mrs. John M. Smith and Gladys, at supper on Tuesday. Presentations were made by the girls to Mr. and Mrs. Laird, |Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Ure as tokens of appreciation of their leadership and interest in the junior choir of St. John's United Church, of which the Cedarvale girls form a large part.

GRADE I TO GRADE II:

Preston.

Barbara Avery, Larry Bailey,

Wayne Bingham, Catharine Bishop,

Joan Davies, David Diggins, Timmy

Haines, Gordon Hancock, Marjorie

Hancock, Harry Johnston, Billy Lu-

cas. Peter Norton, Danny Robson,

Grade I: Freddie Hilts, Betty Ann

Donald Sargent, Billy Wheeler.

The girls and staff of Cedar vale

CEDARVALE GIRLS

ENTERTAIN CHOIR LEADER

at-Home Camp will be held from July 16 to July 27 this year. The camp was inaugurated in

Georgetown's third annual Stay-

1949 by Georgetown Recreation Commission and the Lions Club and Ministerial Association combined with the GRC in its direction. This year, with GRC out of existence, the Lions Club has taken over the sponsorship with the active support of the ministers and is footing the whole bill for the two week camp. Rev. John M. Smith has been engaged as chief-director and working with him as senior directors are Jean Ruddell, Eileen Oates, Rev. Alex Calder, Rev. Alfred Barker, Rev. Alex Cowan, and Rev. J. E. Maxwell,. Junior directors include Donald Livingstone, Wayne Gribbons, Sylvia Lambert, Gretchen Bradley, Marilyn Bell and Bill MacCormack.

The park, churches, school grounds and classrooms will be used for the various activities. A registration fee of 25c per family is the charge. Activities this year feature some new treats, including a puppet show, and a magician. Bible study, sing-songs, games, movies, group hikes a Lions out of town trip, and a Lions evening treat are some of the highlights. Detailed information will be made public in the next two weeks.

The Lions committee in charge of the camp is headed by J. L. Lambert and includes Edwin Wilson, Ray Whitmee, Stewart Young, Jack Armstrong and Norman Smith.

Maple Ave. Resident Dies Suddenly at Home

A well-known resident of town, Mrs. William J. Alexander died suddenly at her home on Maple Avenue East last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Alexander had been under the doctor's care for some time, but had lately been much improved in health. She had been downtown on Friday and Saturday and friends who had seen her on the street were particularly shocked to hear of her death.

A native of Copenhagen, Denmark, she was the former Karen Margaret Neilsen. She came to America in 1924, living in the States for a short time, then moving to Georgetown where she married Mr. Alexander in 1925. They farmed at Ashgrove until his death four years ago. She sold the farm soon afterwards and built a new house in town. She was 58 years of age.

She is survived by two brothers and two sisters in the Old Country. Nearest surviving relative in .. this country is a nephew. Grant Alexander of Toronto.

Rev. John M. Smith conducted the funeral service last Wednesday at the McClure Funeral Home and interment was made in Ashgrove Cemetery. Pallbearers were Grant, Donald and Ross Alexander, Herbert Cantelon, Victor Rundle and Paul Neilsen, a Danish emigrant (no re-Iation) who has been boarding at Mrs. Alexander's home.

Staff Changes at Two Local Banks

Two staff changes took place, in local banks last week.

Vince Jones, accountant at the Royal Bank for two years, received a promotion to first assistant accountant at the main branch of the bank in Sault Ste. Marie. Mr. Jones was transferred here from New Liskeard, and was married last year, his wife, Bernice, taking a position as bookkeeper at McClure's Home Furnishings when she moved to town. She will be moving to the Sault the end of the month.

Replacing Mr. Jones here is Ralph Butler, a native of Ripley, who has been transferred from the Kingsville Branch. His wife will join him here in August

Bill Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. (Jack) Arnold, who started his banking career in the Commerce branch here, has been transferred to Dolhi Taking his place is Douglas Kirkpatrick from the Michael branch, whose home is in Standard