Doreen Bell Marries Garry Kearns, Caledon

Inglewood United Church, decorated with peonies and snapdragons, was the setting for the wedding on Saturday, June 18th of a Smith & Stone employee, Gertrude Doreen Bell to Harold Garfield (Garry) Kearns. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Bell, Inglewood, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kearns, Caledon. Rev. Newton Bowles, Brampton, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Harold Spratt was organist and Mrs. Drum Davidson sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white satin, wore a fingertip veil, and carried red roses. Her attendants were Shirley McAlpine, maid of honour, Bonnie Widdess, bridesmaid, and her sister, Patsy Bell, flower girl. They were gowned alike in colors of orchid, apple green and yellow taffeta. Mr. Jerry Speers was groomsman and Arthur and Gordon Elen, twin brothers, were ushers. The reception was held in the Sunday School room, where the bride's mother received the guests wearing a mauve printed silk jersey dress. For travelling to London and Buffalo, the bride chose a turquoise gabardine suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom's parents were unable to attend the wedding because of illness. The newlyweds will live in Caledon.

DAMAGES $200 IN 8th LINE ACCIDENT

No one was injured and total damage amounted to approximately $200 when a car and dump truck collided on a narrow bridge south of Georgetown on the Eighth Line, two miles south of Georgetown early last Tuesday afternoon. The heavy truck, driven by Gerald Henry, Brampton, collided with the front of an old-model car driven by Lubber Wyma, R R 2, Georgetown when the two vehicles, proceeding in opposite directions, attempted to pass on the narrow bridge. The dump truck received damage to the undercarriage and left front fender, estimated at $150. The car was dented in the front, damage amounting to about $50.

Guelph Baritone is Piano Recital Soloist

Piano and vocal pupils of Kenneth R. Harrison, ARCT, RMT, appeared in recital at the Baptist Church on Friday evening. Mr. Harrison had invited Fred L. Owen baritone soloist of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, where Mr. Harrison is organist and choir leader, to be guest soloist. Mr. Owen sang two groups of numbers, including "Garden Where The Praties Grow" and "Curious Little Boy." Mr. Harrison played two selections, Bach's Organ Prelude in G Minor and Brahms' Six Waltzes.

Rev. Alfred J. Barker was chairman and Richard Sienko and William Cumpsty were ushers. David Diggins and Karen Blyth were awarded proficiency prizes by Mr. Harrison and prizes for proficiency awarded to juniors Arlene Reeve and Arlene Hill and seniors Sylvia Diggins and Richard Sienko. A set of military hair brushes was presented by the pupils to Mr. Harrison, Bobby Tracey making the presentation.

Those playing the piano at the recital were Karen Blyth, David Rawson, David Diggins, Billy Sanford, Joy Barber, John Ottaway, Paulene Watson, Virginia Barber, Eva Garvin, Muriel Appleyard, Ann Hyde, Alan Tracey, Loretta Richardson, Carol Seddon, Gloria Schultz, Ruth Ismond, Irene Fogg, Patsy Richardson, Billy Farmer, Arlene Reeve, Bobby Tracey, Arlene Hill, Francis Broadfoot, Guelph, Lillian Shepherd, Mary Beckett.

James Cullen, Guelph, David Cullen, Guelph, Sylvia Diggins and Richard Sienko. The Cullen brothers also played a duet. Aileen Harrop and Carol Ottaway presented both piano and vocal numbers. Those singing were Jean Hunter, Brydon Shields, John Wilson, Carol Hunter, Marie Harrop, Anne Crowder, Guelph, Joan Harrop, Paul Cunningham, Tommy Hunter and Anna Spitzer.

FAITH
"Hey there, a passing motorist called to a hillbilly who was reclining under a tree. "Your house is on fire!"
"Know it," the hillbilly replied without moving.
"Well, why don't you do something about it?"
"Doin' it now," the hillbilly replied. "Bin a-prayin' fer rain ever since she started." --Reader's Digest.

Modern Methods Help India Improve Food Production

In East Africa, a new type of plow is being used to clear wooded areas for planting wheat. Kansas is a weed which infests farmland. A $10,000,000 loan from the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, Agency assisted with the United States helped the Government of India buy equipment for this land reclamation project.
