Eva Hamilton, Albert Norton Nuptials at Baptist Church

On Saturday, June 16th, Roxie Eva Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hamilton, was married to Albert James Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Norton, Guelph Street. The wedding took place in Georgetown Baptist Church with Rev. Alfred J. Barker officiating at the double ring ceremony. Both bride and groom are employees of Smith & Stone, Ltd.

The church was banked with varied summer flowers for the ceremony. Mrs. R. H. Wright was organist and played "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon net. A head-dress of white nylon was gathered in front with pearl clips. Her shoulder length veil, was of embroidered white nylon net. She wore a single strand of pearls, white nylon gloves and carried a cascade of red roses.

Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clifford Norton. She wore an identical dress of aqua blue with white accessories and carried a cascade of pink roses. Groomsman was the groom's brother, Mr. Clifford Norton. Mr. Hamilton gave his daughter in marriage and ushers were the bride's brother Thomas and the groom's brother Bruce.

At a reception in the church basement, the bride's mother received in a pale blue marquisette dress with white accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a navy nylon dress with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. Ladies of the church W.A. catered for the wedding supper.

For a northern honeymoon trip, the bride changed to a mauve suit with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. They will make their home in Georgetown.

MEMORIALS

DAVIS—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Annie Davis, who died on June 30th, 1949. Take up thy cross and follow Him, Nor think till death to lay it down; For only he who bears the cross May hope to wear the glorious crown.

In that bright eternal city, Where no tears e'er dim the eye, In the home of many mansions We will meet her by and by.

—Ever remembered by husband and family.
