BALLINAFAD Scores Liquor Traffic In Sunday Sermon

Rev. W. B. Smith representing the Ontario Temperance Federation spoke at the Sunday morning service. Mr. Smith during the course of his address stated how we all dread the name of war, but an enemy which has brought more death, human misery and broken homes than war is the liquor traffic and is with us all the time. By the way if you would like to watch liquor "traffic" some time take a walk or drive around the corner of Mill and Market Sts and you'll really see it on the move, especially on a Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. G. Sinclair and family of Milton and Mr. and Mrs. Bert McMenemy of Georgetown were Sunday visitors with the Kirkwoods. Orval Dodds of Guelph spent the week-end with his parents here. A sacred concert will be held in the church next Sunday evening under the direction of the Mission Circle.

Deputy District Governor Instals New Lions Officers

Officers of Georgetown Lions Club for the 1951-52 year were installed last Tuesday when the club combined a ladies night with this annual ceremony. The dinner meeting was held at Hiltop Lodge, Erin.

The deputy district governor, Frank Bartlett, was assisted by the zone chairman, Doug Fleming, Dundas, in installing the new officers. These are Ray Whitmore, president; Don Barrager, first vice president; Cecil McNamara, second vice president; Clarence Kennedy, third vice president; Spence McKinnon, secretary; Norman Smith, treasurer; Elmer Dron, tail twister; Stewart Young, Lion tamer; Jack Gunning, bulletin editor; Edwin Wilson, Ernie Rawson, Fred Schultz, Bill Barry, directors.

The retiring president, Jack Armstrong was chairman and was presented with his past president's button. One hundred percent attendance awards were presented to eleven club members by Mr. Fleming. Mrs. Armstrong extended a vote of thanks on behalf of the ladies.

Entertainment was supplied by a troupe from Toronto, including Billy Meek, Scotch comedian, Ernie Barthes, pianist and Paddy Burke, young singer and dancer. There was dancing after the program.

First Meeting New Board Children's Aid Society

On June 12th eleven directors attended the first meeting of the new board of officers of Halton's Children's Aid Society, in the society's office in Milton. The president, F. D. Mahon was in the chair. A finance committee was appointed, composed of George E. Elliott, William Deans, Kenneth Dick, J. W. Higgins and Mrs. M. E. Nixon. Accounts of $1851 were passed, including $980 for board and $370 for clothing and supplies. The reception home committee.

Mrs. W. A. Weaver, Mrs. Louis Lee, Mrs. Vedna Norris and Mrs. M. J. Brown, was authorized to purchase any necessary bedding and equipment for use in the reception home.

During the month of May it was reported that seven cases had been closed and five new cases investigated that month. Visits and of-five interviews totalled 86. Five legal adoptions were completed during the month, and children in the society's care numbered 136.

Glengarry, with less than 11,000 voters, is the smallest federal electoral division in Canada.

Greek Gifts for Korea

Korean Minister of Health Han Yung Oh (right) expresses the appreciation of the people of Korea for Greece's generosity by shaking the hand of a Greek Orthodox priest, chaplain with a contingent of Greek reinforcements for the United Nations Forces in Korea. The crates in the background, on the Pusan waterfront, contain contributions from Greece of soap, medical and school supplies for the Korean people. Korean Minister of Social Affairs Huh Chung and Brigadier General A. C. Dascarolis, Greek commander, who made presentation of the gifts, appear in that order at the left.
