Induct Alfred J. Barker
Baptist Church Minister

Rev. Alfred J. Barker was inducted as minister of Georgetown Baptist Church at a service last Tuesday evening in the church.
Mr. Barker assumed his pastorate here a few weeks ago following his graduation from McMaster University. He was ordained a Baptist minister in a service here recently.
Rev. Ira Eberle, Guelph, moderator of the Guelph association of Baptist churches took charge of the service which opened with a call to worship by Rev. L. K. Chubb, Brampton. Rev. J. C. Williamson, Preston preached the sermon and Mr. Eberle conducted the induction ceremony with Rev. H. D. James, Cheltenham, giving the induction prayer.
Mr. Lloyd George extended a welcome to the new minister on behalf of the Guelph Association and Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson, rector of St. George's Church, extended a welcome from the Georgetown Ministerial Association.
The choir, with Mrs. R. H. Wright at the organ, provided the musical part of the service. Miss Jean Harley and Mr. Douglas Peck sang a duet.
Mr. Barker was tendered a reception in the church basement following the service, at which members of the congregation and other friends expressed their pleasure at having him as pastor. Rev. John M. Smith and Rev. Alex J. Calder joined Archdeacon Thompson in extending a welcome from the local ministers.

Cst. Leonard Chambers
Joins OPP Detachment

Replacing Constable Vic Smith, who left for Ottawa last week to join the Mounties, Constable Leonard Chambers arrived in town last Friday to serve with the Georgetown detachment, Ontario Provincial Police.
Constable Chambers, who came here from Simcoe, is a native of London, England. He served with the RCA during the war, is married and father of a seven-month-old son, James.
He joined the OPP in 1941, and has been stationed at Niagara Falls, Hamilton, Oakville, Langton and Simcoe.

Gain Second Baseball
Win From Clarkson

Rain ended a Georgetown-Acton ball game in the fifth inning last Wednesday, and Acton was declared the winner. They were leading 5-0 at the time.
Georgetown copped their second win against Clarkson Saturday 12-8. The team is shaping into a classy ball club and there have been many favourable comments made both by umpires and visiting teams about their future prospects.
At a league meeting Monday, dates were set for two local postponed games. Oakville will play here Saturday, July 30 and Milton on Wednesday, August 1st.
Meanwhile the regular league games continue, Waterdown playing here tonight.

Stanley Park Picnic
For Knox, Limehouse

Knox and Limehouse Presbyterian Churches held their annual Sunday school picnic Saturday at Stanley Park, Erin. A good turnout enjoyed the outing. Knox beat Limehouse in a ball game 19-11.

Gordon Spence Elected
Oddfellow Deputy G.M.

Gordon Spence, Georgetown, was elected deputy grand master of Credit District, IOOF, when members of the Order convened at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto last week.
Mr. Spence will have jurisdiction over lodges at Georgetown, Orangeville, Milton, Brampton and Alton for the next year.
Mrs. Meta Priestley, Toronto, is district deputy for the Rebekahs, who convened at the same time.

Ernest Hughson Buried In Greenwood Cemetery

A member of an old Georgetown family, Ernest Henwood Hughson, was buried in Greenwood Cemetery here on Saturday, June 18th.
Mr. Hughson died suddenly at his home, 79 Pauline Avenue, Toronto, on June 13th. He is survived by his wife, Ruth Duff, and three children, Ernest, Mrs. Ilean Robert and Mattie. His mother, who died three years ago at the age of 97, was also buried here after her death.
The funeral service was held in Toronto at the Earle Elliott funeral home on Friday evening preceding the burial.

Strawberry Social For Check Line Forum

Members of the Check Line farm forum had a strawberry social on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lykle DeVries. Thirty adults and a dozen children enjoyed tasty strawberry shortcake and whipped cream. The evening was arranged by Mrs. DeVries, Mrs. George Leslie, Mrs. Bob Nicol and Mrs. Denney Charles.

ODE TO A POLICEMAN
(to the tune of "Cruising Down the River")
Cruising along on King Street,
In the early morn,
Looking for the doggies
That were out at dawn;
If you want to catch 'em,
You must be up to see 'em.
The bird that caught the fishworm,
Down by the chestnut tree.
