Lovely Summer Bridals

Bettke-Barnes Nuptials At Knox Church

Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, was the scene of the marriage on Saturday, July 7th, at three o'clock, of Violet Ellehton, daughter of Mr. Hodger Barnes and the late Mrs. Barnes, and Robert Arthur Bettke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Bettke of Kitchener. Rev. Alex J. Calder officiated at the ceremony, and Miss Marion Hepburn was organist. The church was decorated with blue delphinium, pink peonies, roses and mixed flowers for the occasion. During the signing of the register, Miss Hepburn played "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a street-length dress of powder blue lace, with matching bolero jacket and headdress entwined with flowers, white accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink Delight roses, white carnations and stephanotis. Miss Shirley Muckart was bridesmaid, wearing a beige lace street-length frock with matching lace mittens, and carrying a nosegay of blue cornflowers, pink Delight roses and white carnations, with a matching floral headdress. Mr. James Burns was groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. Jack Muckart and Mr. Jack Bettke, brother of the groom.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's father, with her aunt, Mrs. Hanna Ruddle receiving in a grey figured silk dress with grey and black accessories and a corsage of Queen Elizabeth roses. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a dusty rose crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. For travelling the bride changed to a red suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. After a honeymoon in Northern Ontario the couple will reside on Young Street, Georgetown.

ELEANOR OVERLAND WEDS RONALD CASH

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, on Wednesday evening, June 27th when Eleanor M. Overland youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Overland, of Erin, became the bride of Ronald Cash, son of Mr. G. E. Cash and the late Mrs. Cash of Stewarttown. Rev. A. J. Calder officiated.

The bride chose a dress of pale blue nylon, trimmed with nylon lace with white accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. Her only attendant was Miss Mary Beckett of Georgetown, who wore a pink nylon dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses. The groomsmen was Mr. Floyd Zeigler of Georgetown.

Following the marriage, a reception was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Wm. Hulls, after which the happy couple left on a short honeymoon through northern Ontario.

On their return, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Erin. The couple have taken up residence in Stewarttown.

On Friday evening, June 22, at 7:00 o'clock in Boston Presbyterian Church, Rev. W. Bradbury, father of the groom, united in marriage, Margaret Elizabeth McCallum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCallum of Milton, and Clarence Maxwell Bradbury, son of Rev. W. and Mrs. Bradbury of Walpole Island. The church was decorated with pink and white peonies for the occasion. The organist was James Burns of Georgetown, and the soloist, Miss Jean Harley, also of Georgetown, wearing a yellow gown sang "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of peony white nylon marquisette and French rose lace. The fitted bodice of the slip-over lace jacket, featured a long, low effect, extending to a wide picture neckline and filled in with a yoke of nylon marquisette. The jacket had long sleeves of the lace and a pephum, trimmed with a wide border of marquisette, which extended to a chapel train. The full gathered underskirt of marquisette fell in graceful folds to the floor. She wore a helmet of lace over net. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Arthur Hurst of Kitchener, and Mrs. Martip Kelly, Milton, cousin of the bride, were gowned in blue georgette, full-length style, with matching helmets and net gloves, and carried nosegays of pink roses. Miss Alice Murphy, Georgetown, as maid of honor, wore a full-length fuschia georgette gown with matching helmet and white net gloves and a nosegay of roses. The flower girl, Sharon Bradbury, the groom's niece, looked lovely in yellow net over taffeta, with a band of ruffled net over taffeta in her hair, and carried a basket of sweet peas. The groomsmen was Mr. Leigh Bradbury, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Findlay McCallum, the bride's brother and Mr. Eugene Hardy.

At the reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Heather Lea Farm, Mrs. McCallum received the guests wearing pink georgette and lace over taffeta, with black accessories and a pink rose corsage. The groom's mother assisted wearing navy blue tulle, navy and white accessories and a red rose corsage. For a honeymoon trip to Northern Ontario the bride travelled in a navy blue tailored suit, with navy and white accessories and a corsage of red roses. They will reside in Limehouse.

The bride is a member of Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, and the couple were piped out of the church by band members Mrs. Mary Patterson and Miss Shirley Wright. The bride is the fourth generation going to the church. The groom is a member of the Raiders hockey team. Guests were present from Port Nelson, Port Credit, Florida, Wayne, Indiana; Pontiac, Mich.; Brampton, Kitchener, Acton, Galt, London, Belgrave, Hornepayne, Walpole Island, Burlington, Hamilton, Toronto, Peterboro, Wallaceburg, Milton, Georgetown, Campbellville, Norval, and Fort Erie.

Rev. Arthur Dayfoot Speaker at St. John's

Morning worship at St. John's United Church on Sunday was conducted by the minister Rev. John M. Smith. Rev. Arthur Dayfoot, well known to the citizens of Georgetown was the guest speaker in his home church. Mr. Dayfoot, who is an evangelistic missionary of the United Church of Canada spoke to the congregation of the crying need of the oriental people in general and of China in particular. These, he said, were a desire for social justice, freedom from inflation and hunger, and a great desire for truth. The Christian Church, he said, had an opportunity of giving to them the truth that would make them free. This must be presented in deed as well as word and concluding his remarks Mr. Dayfoot referred to the cry of Christian fellowship as symbolized in that high point of worship of the Christian Church - "The Lord's Supper". Following his remarks he conducted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shields were received into full membership of St. John's by transfer of certificate from the Mayfield United Church.

Among those visiting at St. John's on Sunday morning were Rev. Colin Todd a former minister of the Church and Rev. J. McDermid, a former member.
